Democrats Forecast Victory for Truman; Platform Battle Seen

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

PHILADELPHIA, July 7 (AP)—Democrats gave their national convention machinery a preliminary spin today and, to many of them, it looked as if President Truman would turn up with the winning number.

Early arrivals for the party meeting starting next Monday predicted for the most part that Mr. Truman is "in" for the presidential nomination. But the "Draft Eisenhower" crowd, here and elsewhere around the country, was giving up grudgingly and in some cases not at all.

Truman supporters went into action to head off any attempt by a gallery mob to stampede the convention to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Party bigwigs went over final details for the convention.

AND ON THE top floor of the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, a platform drafting team started hearings that bumped right into the hot racial and civil rights issues.

Dixie Democrats demanded—as one possible price for recapture of party unity—a hands-off platform policy on Federal civil rights laws and a resounding party plank for states rights.

A fierce battle over the race issue also loomed before the platform writers. Some members of the South said the plank adopted in 1944 would satisfy the South while others said it wouldn't.

But it developed quickly that the Southerners will not have everything their own way—not, at least, without a fight.

THE ONCE BIG boom for General Ike appeared to be definitely sagging, in spite of efforts of die-hards to keep it going.

But just as a precaution, Convention Sergeant-at-Arms Leslie L. Biffle rounded up an extra police detail because he had heard "there will be an attempt to stampede the convention."

That was an obvious move to intercept any efforts by a howling crowd in the convention galleries to revive the Eisenhower campaign.

Eight years ago, the "We Want Willkie" cries from the balconies were credited in part with swinging the Republican convention toward the nomination of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Biffle told a reporter he figures it's Truman on the first ballot at this year's Democratic show. That was the idea, too, of Senator J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island.

Fresh Air, Fun and Fine Food—It's a Treat for Them

—Mercury Staff Photos

The Pottstown Community camp was going full blast yesterday as, in the first week of operation, 43 happy boys and girls enjoyed the sports and good times of the Oley valley Summer playground. Thirty-three of the youngsters were brought to the camp (upper photo) by members of the Spicer Employes' Aid association, who sponsored the camp, and their luggage in a truck of the Pottstown Salvation Army headquarters. They were quick to make themselves at home, and when chow call rang out over the hills and woods, they came on the double for the meals of chicken, steak or other delicacies furnished in the Community camp's up-to-date mess hall.

Heat Spell Broken By Rain, Cool Air

A great waft of cool air from eastern Canada banished the heat wave and the humidity yesterday bringing instead showers and clouds.

It rained spasmodically yesterday morning up to 11 o'clock. After that it was just cool and cloudy for the rest of the day.

The mercury never got above 72 and the low was 64.

But if you cooled off yesterday, consider the inhabitants of Phoenix, Ariz., who shimmered through the day in 110 degree heat. The weatherman said the Southwest and Midwest continued hot yesterday and the only cool spots in the nation were the two coasts and the tops of the tallest mountains.

The sunny and warmer forecast for today and tomorrow may bring the heat wave back to life before it is really dead, however, so hang onto your fan.

Low Rent Housing Is Available Locally Without Tax Costs

By FRANK BOSTAL
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Pottstown can have a low rent housing program without cost to its taxpayers.

It has only to follow the lead taken by New York City.

Low rent housing, financed without cash subsidy, was suggested editorially by The Mercury the past June 30. By following the New York plan, it is possible for the borough to finance a $265,109 housing project, without cash subsidy, to provide living quarters for 40 low income families.

The first step to be taken by the borough would be to establish a housing authority. This is permitted under State law.

Second, to authorize the authority to float bonds amounting to $265,109 for a housing project. This is 2 percent of a five-year average assessed valuation of $13,255,449 for all Pottstown property.

INVESTMENT BANKERS agree this is the maximum figure at which a housing project could be erected without continued financial support by the borough. It would allow rents within reach of low income groups, but still sufficient to cover full debt service as well as maintenance and operating costs.

Both debt service reserve and maintenance reserve funds would be set up under the bond issue to retire the debt and maintain the property.

As a third step, the borough would give a guarantee of good faith. It would pledge itself to appropriate to the project within 30 days enough money to cover any shortage in the debt service fund.

The project would be designed for those families who do not earn enough to purchase their own homes, but whose incomes exceed the limits prescribed for projects such as Penn Village.

* * *

MAXIMUM INCOMES for residents of Penn Village are fixed at $35 per week for a childless couple, and scale up to a top limit of $46 per

FRIENDS REVEAL TRAGEDY DETAIL

Diving Accident Described; Decide to Use Club Surplus For Victim's Doctor Bills

As funeral arrangements were made for William Smith, 19, of 19 West Sixth street, who died yesterday from spinal injuries sustained in a dive at Ocean City, N. J., details of the tragedy were related by young friends with him when it happened.

William Smith

Most of the friends are members of the Ellis Rangers Athletic club, as was young Smith. As a tribute to their friend, they voted last night to use their treasury surplus to pay the bill for hospital care and specialists — about $300.

A delegation from the club will call on his family today, urging them to accept the tribute.

Smith, a popular member of Pottstown High school's class of 1947, was conscious and cheerful until his death yesterday morning at 2:50 o'clock, the friends declared.

It was only to his family, they added, that he expressed doubt about his chances for life, telling them how his injury reminded him of the accident to David Wilson, 16, of 63 Edgewood street.

Wilson dived into 11 inches of water at Kirkwood pool June 30, 1947. His neck broken, he died at

Bear Carries Tot Into Woods, Mangles Body

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 7 (AP)—The three-year-old daughter of a forest ranger was carried off into the woods and killed by a bear in the isolated Marquette National forest west of here today.

The child, Carol Ann Pomrankey, was found a quarter of a mile from her parents' lonely cabin by a posse of farmers and woodsmen. Her body was mangled.

An angered trapper immediately organized a party to hunt the killer bear, tracked the animal down and killed him.

Carol Ann was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pomrankey, whose cabin was located next to the mission hill fire tower, 30 miles northwest of here. Her father is a towerman at the isolated station.

THE GIRL'S MOTHER witnessed the scene as the child was carried off about 2 o'clock this afternoon. The father was at the forest headquarters at the time, about 12 miles away.

Carol Ann, she told officers, was playing on the porch of the cabin when the bear lumbered out of the woods and ran for her.

The mother screamed and tried

SOVIET FIGHTERS IN AIR CORRIDOR

British Pilot Sights Five Red Planes While Flying Supplies to Berlin

BERLIN, July 7 (AP)—The British announced tonight that five Russian Yak fighter planes were sighted in the British air corridor between Berlin and Hamburg yesterday.

British military government headquarters said a British European airways pilot spotted the planes.

An announcement said one of the fighters "peeled off and flew within the comparatively close vicinity of the BEA pilot's aircraft."

"The Yak pilot did not fly dangerously near and in the BEA pilot's own words, 'I was not in the least worried,'" the statement added.

It declared "no importance or significance is attached to the report."

THIS WAS the first report of a British or American pilot sighting Russian fighters since the air lift to blockaded Berlin got under way. U.S. Air Force officers said American pilots had been given "routine" briefings to watch for Russian fighters. But none has been reported in the U.S. corridor.

British military government headquarters officially denied that the Russians protested the use of Havel lake, in the western sector, by Sunderland flying boats bringing supplies to the city.

The announcement added, however, that the Russian inland water chief visited headquarters yesterday and "intimated he wished to ask urgent questions on the use of flying boats on the Havel lake."

"As the responsible military government official, as well as the head of the transport branch, were absent on duty he was not able to pursue the matter further," the announcement said.

Union at Firestone Brands Walkout Illegal, Seeks Settlement of Issue

"The strike is illegal and unauthorized."

Robert E. Garber, president of Local 336, United Rubber Workers (CIO), made this statement last night about the walkout in the tire-building department of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company plant which began Monday at 11 p. m.

The young union head said he and other Local 336 officials had been trying to get the men on the 11 p. m. to 7 a. m. shift back to work, but as of late last night had been unsuccessful.

Although the strike in the one department has threatened a shutdown of the entire tire-making facilities, the huge plant will remain open this morning, C. E. Heitman, personnel manager, asserted.

Garber maintained that non-union members on that shift were primarily to blame for the unauthorized walkout. He estimated that approximately half the men on that shift were not in the union and, hence, not under union discipline.

A SPECIAL MEETING of all union tire builders was called by Garber for this afternoon at 1 o'clock in CIO hall on King street to map plans for combating what Garber said were actions of the non-union men.

The union president confirmed the opinion of C. E. Heitman, plant personnel manager, that the walkout centered around protests of the tire builders over "allowance" provisions in the new contract.

Under the old contract, men were paid for all the time they were idle through maintenance or other work cessations, but were paid only three-quarters of normal rate.

Under the new contract, the men are paid full rate for their idle or "down" time. But the contract does not specify whether cumulative "down" time shall be paid.

Garber said the men are not being paid for "down" time intervals if they are less than ten minutes in length.

ASSERTING THAT the union has sent this grievance through the first three steps of arbitration and now is awaiting the final step — arbitration by an impartial referee—Garber emphasized:

1. The company's refusal to pay for "down" time less than ten minutes in length does not constitute any violation of the new nation-wide contract.

2. "This grievance is no excuse for the walkout."

The Monday night walkout at 11 o'clock had been preceded by a brief walkout at 7:20 p. m., Garber said. But since the shift is all-union, he added, Morgan Barlow,

Congestion Near Plant Causes Traffic Mishap

While the picket lines keeping the tire builders from the Firestone plant caused the usual traffic congestion last night, only one mishap was reported.

Gerald L. Lightcap, of 412 High street, told Pottstown police he was the last in a long line of cars stopped at 11:20 p. m. by the Stop sign at the intersection of Firestone road and High street, as he left the plant.

The car in front of him, driven by Jack R. Roland, Reading, stopped. Lightcap's car didn't. The front and rear of the respective cars were crumpled slightly.

Ingenious 'Lids' Are Modeled at Playgrounds

Displaying flashes of youthful ingenuity, children from six Pottstown playgrounds unabashedly participated in a hat show yesterday afternoon and appeared before judges with extraordinary creations which would send New York and Paris designers scurrying back to kindergarten art classes.

Each playground held its own show, had its own judges and its own prizes. But all of them put together gave proof that the imagination and incentive faculty of Pottstown youth is both wild and healthy.

Mrs. Florence Manthorne, playground director, staged the shows. The Rupert school, only playground not included in yesterday's affair, will hold its hat show this afternoon at 3 o'clock, weather permitting.

There were 148 entries in the lid parade, and many of the headgear concoctions would have given Lilly Dache an open and shut case of delirium tremens.

Navy Finds 'New York' Easy Target - - Too Easy

ABOARD THE CARRIER BOXER, July 7 (AP)—The venerable battleship New York capsized and sunk unexpectedly this afternoon during the first day of the scheduled two-day fleet exercises 50 miles south of Honolulu.

The New York rolled over on her port side under a barrage of nothing larger than 500-pound bombs and five-inch shells, wallowed like a gigantic whale with her flat bottom awash and then settled at 2:30 p. m.

It had been expected she would withstand all that Task Force 38 could throw at her for two days then require finishing by torpedoes.

The New York had survived two wars and two atomic blasts at Bikini.

Her unexpected sinking left untested the Navy's "bat" bomb—the 2000 bomb rigged with wings and a tail and guided to the target by radar.

She started to roll shortly after surface ships completed firing hun-

Commercial Meters In Water System Replaced by Borough

The modernization program of the Pottstown Water company has included replacement of most of the worn-out meters in commercial establishments, Borough Manager Dow I. Sears revealed yesterday.

He said that installation of 40 new meters, ordered the past Fall, was virtually completed.

"Most of the worst ones have been taken care of," Sears said yesterday, "and the water department is working as fast as it can to take care of the others."

Many of the meters in factories and other business places could be repaired, he said, and replacement will not be necessary.

AMONG THE MANY deficiencies of the old Pottstown Gas and Water company, when it was acquired by the borough in 1947, was the condition of the water meters in commercial establishments.

Most of the meters were faulty or out of order, and in many instances, water charges for these places had to be estimated.

Sears also announced yesterday that the borough's water main program was progressing

Two Companies Answer False Alarm in East End

Two fire trucks, a service truck, an ambulance and several hundred neighbors were drawn to Queen and Keim streets last night at 8:43 o'clock by a false alarm.

Investigation by Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer, Patrolman Harry Chrusch and Assistant Fire Chief Harold Wentzel revealed that the box button was pulled down by a youngster about six years old.

Exactly which youngster did it was not clear. A tearful boy of six was interviewed by the officials at his home, after two little girls said he did it. But he denied sending the alarm.

The alarm from the box, installed a month ago and sounding a 1-3-5-4 series of blasts from the borough hall horn, brought equipment of the Good Will Fire company and the Empire Hook and Ladder company.

Wien Takes Over Duties As Stowe Health Officer

Daniel Wien, who was Stowe's only mail carrier until the past week, has been appointed health officer of West Pottsgrove township.

Wien was notified the past Saturday after a special session of the township commissioners, it was learned last night.

The new health officer, who took office immediately upon notification, succeeds John A. Naylor, who died, the past Spring.

Peter Dori, chairman of the commissioners, said the choice had the approval of the health board.

NO MEMBER of the health board could be reached last night to discover if Wien will be obliged to attend a State school for health officers. It was believed that Wien is opposed to attending such a school.

Yesterday Wien was on a short vacation. The past week he quit as Stowe's mail carrier. He had carried mail for more than three years.

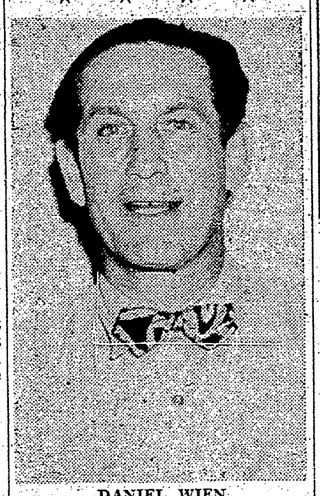

Prior to that the 47-year-old appointee worked at the Stanley G. Flagg company and previously was a steward at the West End Fire company.

He has lived in Stowe for more than 25 years. Spring City is his birthplace.

The past Fall he was defeated for re-election as a commissioner.

Broken Water Main Repaired in Stowe

A 24-inch water main in Stowe, accidentally broken Tuesday afternoon by a steam shovel, was repaired yesterday.

Eight men, working under the direction of Harvey L. Hines, head of the borough water company maintenance crew, labored to get a 12-foot length of pipe in place, sealing the leak, and fitting a sleeve over the middle.

A major part of the job was turning the 600-pound valve to turn the water on again.

"Those valves sometimes give you a little trouble after they've been shut off," Borough Manager Dow I. Sears pointed out yesterday.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON at 4:30 o'clock a steam shovel, digging a sewer connection into the street from the home of Joseph Schneider, 229 Howard street, suddenly slipped and dropped the shovel on the exposed main.

The broken main was the trunk line from the Pottstown Water company's pumping station in Bramcote to the reservoir near Berks street, on top of a hill in Stowe.

Reds Retard European Progress, U. S. Says in Reply to Polish Note

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—The United States advised Poland today to complain to the Russians rather than the Western powers about "the present deplorable division of Europe and Germany."

The State department acidly rejected Poland's protest against a plan to set up a separate government in western Germany. The note laid full blame for the split on Moscow.

Following up the demand submitted yesterday by the United States, Britain and France that the Soviets lift the blockade of Berlin, Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett told the Polish ambassador:

The division "is not of our making and certainly not in accordance with our wishes."

"IF CERTAIN COUNTRIES 'who suffered most in consequence of German aggression' claim that their interests are not sufficiently taken into account by the program planned for western Germany," Lovett advised, "their complaint should not be addressed to the United States government but to the government primarily responsible for preventing these countries from co-operating in the general recovery program for Europe."

Lovett's note was in reply to a protest filed June 18 by Poland against the past month's six-power agreement at London to go ahead with plans to revive western Germany without participation of Russia and her satellites. First steps already are being taken to merge the American, British and French occupation zones.

Lovett addressed his note to Ambassador Josef Winiewicz and used it as a vehicle for a fresh indictment of Soviet actions since V-J Day. Britain rejected a similar Polish protest yesterday.

Vote Outcome Unknown On Doehler Contract

Ballots still were being counted early this morning from the day-long voting among union members at the Doehler-Jarvis corporation's Pottstown plant on the question of whether the proposed new contract will be accepted.

Gustav H. Schade Jr., president of Local 703, International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO), declined to make any forecast on the issue's outcome, and election workers did not release their incomplete returns.

Necessary to acceptance of the contract is a majority vote among all union members at the four Doehler - Jarvis plants throughout the nation.

Road Oil Coating Turns Highway Into 'Winter' Scene as Cars Slide

If the temperature hadn't been in the high 60's, Pottstown Landing residents would have sworn it was Winter yesterday morning for a couple of hours.

Cars were slithering all over the road; trucks were turning completely around. Traffic conditions were, in short, just what you would expect with an inch of ice on the road.

The whole thing was caused by a thick slick of road oil over the north lane of the River road for about half a mile between Route 100 and a sharp bend at Pottstown Landing.

MRS. A. WILLIAM Ellis, of Pottstown Landing, said housewives who lived near the treacherous bend stood near the road shouting warnings to drivers of approaching vehicles to slow down before reaching the oil. Even so, many skidded.

The oil was sprayed on at 9 o'clock. A short time later, intermittent rains made the highway even more slippery.

The only accident in the heavy delivery truck traffic that Mrs. Ellis saw was a dented fender sustained by an unidentified milk truck which was trying to pull another vehicle out of a ditch.

At 11 o'clock the situation was relieved when the township road gang covered the greaspy mess with crushed stone.

Mrs. Ellis said no police were posted at either end of the danger spot to slow oncoming traffic.

Harry E. Yocum, chairman of the road supervisors, said three miles of the road, between Route 100 and the intersection with Route 83, will be oiled and covered with stone.

Painter Injures Nose In Slide Off Roof

Alex Knaster, 908 High street, escaped with a slightly bruised nose at 12:30 p. m. yesterday, when he slipped while painting a porch roof at 57 West Fifth street.

Knaster said he slipped only a few feet, skinning his nose, but did not fall from the ladder.

Dr. Ralph H. Merkel advised the painter to take the afternoon off.

Strike Date Passes As Negotiations Continue at Spicer's

Although yesterday was the earliest possible date for a walkout at the Spicer Manufacturing division of the Dana corporation, the day passed without union officials calling out their men.

At a meeting of 1000 Spicer employes in the Pottstown Senior High school the past June 13, a strike was approved unanimously on or after July 7.

The issue was the wage demands made by Local 644, United Automobile Workers (CIO).

Concerning the demands, John A. Shaner, secretary of Local 644 said yesterday, "The situation is just the same as it was."

It will remain that way until a general meeting of union members, scheduled for 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Senior High school auditorium.

A conference between union and management officials, however, has been set for 10 a. m. Saturday, for a possible mutually satisfactory agreement between the plant and Local 644.

After the June 13 meeting, Shaner had emphasized that the strike vote did not preclude further wage negotiations.

He did not reveal what the original wage demands were, but wage increases in the automobile and allied industries have averaged 11 to 13 cents an hour recently.

Military Services Are Conducted for Sgt. Earl L. Sell

Funeral services for Sgt. Earl L Sell, husband of Mrs Gladys H. Sell, 903 South street, were held yesterday afternoon from a funeral home at 112 North Washington street, the Rev. Edward S Horn, pastor of St. James' Lutheran church, officiating.

Interment was made in Highland Memorial cemetery, where military services were conducted by Earl F. Newton, chairman of the Veteran's War council, assisted by the Rev. Horn, chaplain, and William Yohn, first vice commander of the American Legion.

Bearers were John B. Amwacke, Howard Kalis; and Morris Frick, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Yohn, Leonard Rachild, and Charles Hall, of the American Legion.

The firing squad, under the command of Capt. Joseph Barrett, was composed of Edward A. Jones, Paul Smith. James F. Hoffman, Richard Wilson, Charles Hall and Charles Kelly.

Color bearers were Clarence H. Grimes and LeRoy B. Kulp, while Ralph N. Rhoads and Frank Weber were color guards. "Taps" was played by Bugler W. R Schwenk.

Sgt. Sell's body was escorted by M/Sgt. Michael J. Borge, Schuylkill Arsenal, Philadelphia.

Two-Man Campaign For Airport Under Way

A ten-day drive to raise funds for the completion of the Pottstown Municipal airport got underway Tuesday.

W. Harvey Diener, 383 North Charlotte, and Jay W. Hazlett, of Limerick, who volunteered to do the job, divided their territory, agreed to visit approximately eight persons daily and assured Citizens' Airport committee chairman Leon C. MacMullen of a report before the end of the week.

Less than $10,000 still is needed by the borough, if Federal and State grants of $60,000 toward the municipal airport are to be retained.

Hasselhan was arrested Saturday night at his home after a family row that began when he tried to enter his locked home. The warrant was sworn out by Albert G. Volz, Pottstown RD 3, who said Hasselhan had provoked a fight outside the Halfway House.

GI Term Policies May Be Renewed

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP) — National service life insurance "term" policies may be renewed for five years, the Veterans administration said today.

The first of the policies, issued to men in service in October, 1940, will expire next October unless renewed. From 1946 onward the term policies were issued for five instead of eight years.

War veterans and servicemen heretofore have had to convert their term policies to one of six available permanent forms to avoid lapse.

Congress recently passed a law allowing renewal of the term policies for another five-year period at the premium rate applicable at the time of renewal.

Meanwhile, more than 10,000,000 veterans who have allowed term insurance to lapse have until July 31 to reinstate their policies without a physical examination.

Most of the higher groups of birds had been evolved by the end of the Cretaceous period, 60 to 70 million years ago.

The wheel of fortune turns round incessantly, and who can say to himself, "I shall today be uppermost." Confucius.

The Miners' Take-Home Pay

IT IS John L. Lewis' obvious intention to make the country believe that the average soft coal miner is getting a pretty raw deal, and that increases in the cost of living have largely offset increases in his pay.

In the light of that, it is interesting to examine the official figures.

In 1939, according to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics, coal miners earned, on the average, $23.88 a week. Last year they earned $66.86—an increase of nearly 180 percent.

This wage was higher than that reported for any other major industrial group anywhere in the United States or the world.

By way of contrast, the cost of living in 1947 was 60 percent higher than in 1939, going by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Thus, increases in earnings have been far more than the advance in the cost of living.

The best barometer of a worker's welfare is his take-home pay, which is the determining factor in his purchasing power. If 1948 dollars are evaluated in terms of their 1939 purchasing power, it is found that during the first three months of this year, coal miners' take-home pay was 75 percent above the former year. The purchasing power of workers in all manufacturing industry, on the other hand, was up 29 percent from the 1939 level.

Even this tells only part of the story. Many thousands of miners exceed the weekly average by a wide margin.

All miners receive many more direct and indirect benefits than they used to, and the working day has been substantially shortened.

How to Get More Meat

THE basis of a sound livestock and meat industry program is simply enough expressed. It lies, in the words of John F. Krey, chairman of the board of the American Meat Institute, "in the production of an adequate supply of meat for the country's increasing population." To attain that end, we must make full and efficient use of all our resources.

That is of particular importance at this time, when various groups are advocating a return to price control and rationing of meat and other commodities. The people should realize that controls of this character—or any other policy which interferes with the free operation of a competitive, supply-and-demand system—would inevitably reduce the nation's meat supply, both now and in the future. Farmers, who would naturally fear the imposition of arbitrary prices which would not permit them to earn a profit, would reduce their livestock herds. There would be widespread hoarding of frozen meat by consumers as a hedge against pending shortages. Finally, just as in the past, an ever-increasing proportion of the available meat would flow into the black market, to the profit of racketeers.

Even though controls were only of temporary duration the damage would be great. A reduction in our livestock population, for instance, cannot be made up quickly. It takes years to raise meat animals to the point where they are ready for market.

Meat, as a matter of fact, is an exceptionally good example of the fallacy of political controls.

Since the demise of OPA, the country has had plenty of it, there has been no black market, the consumer has again been given the highest standards of sanitation, and the price, for all of our complaints, has been as low as the "new" cost of doing business and the generally higher level of all prices will allow.

If we leave competitive free enterprise alone, it will gradually expand our meat production in line with our increasing requirements.

"Steps Toward Peace"

ON JULY 26, 1946, President Truman signed the bill granting a 3.75 billion dollar credit to Britain. He commented: "It goes far to remove the danger of rival and antagonistic economic blocs."

On May 22, 1947, Mr. Truman signed the $400 million dollar Greco-Turkish aid bill. He called it "an important step in the building of peace."

On April 3, 1948, Mr. Truman signed the European Recovery Act. He termed it a "momentous occasion in the world's quest for enduring peace."

On June 28, 1948, Mr. Truman signed the bill appropriating 6.03 billions for European recovery. He said its purpose was "to preserve free institutions in stability and peace."

On June 24, 1948, the President signed the draft bill. For once, he had no comment.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where meat will be packaged and sold like cigarets. Not at these prices it won't.

Smoke Rolls Into Hilldale

To the Editor: Our patience is wearing thin on the promises made by the borough and Mr. Dunn, the garbage collector, that fires at the dump along Moser road will be kept under control.

Heavy clouds of smoke, pungent with the odor of burning garbage, have been rolling our way the past few days. At night, the flames at the dump cast a red glow in the sky. Everything in our house smells of this foul stench.

We may not be members of Pottstown's influential and social set, but we deserve better treatment than having to bear this nuisance. It's not by choice that many of us live in Hilldale, so we try to get as many pleasant things as possible out of life here. The odor from the burning dump is one we can do without.

Hilldale ROSE

Caught in Price Spiral

To the Editor: It's all well and good that Doehler workers are getting a 12-cent wage increase. Others are getting their cut, so the die makers might as well take their share.

But what about the clerks in Pottstown stores, the waitresses in the restaurants? They can't see any sense in this race between wages and prices when, although they find their employer taking in more money with each local wage boost, their salaries remain the same.

Clerks and waitresses are far underpaid. It's time someone took them out of the $30-a-week class.

Pottstown CLERK

Wants More Water Fights

To the Editor: What's happened to the big water fight that was supposed to come off between the Empires and the Phillies? Or was it the Police department and the Empires?

As an old dyed-in-the-wool water fight fan, I'd like to see the boys get out their fire hoses again and go to battle. There's no finer entertainment in the world than to watch our firehouse pinochle experts dust off each other's paunches with the stuff that squirts from the nozzle.

I suggest, however, that since the policemen have proved themselves they be held under wraps until the Empires and Phillies have picked their winner.

Hopes Orchid Sets Styles

To the Editor: The orchid which won the $240 prize in a London flower show was said to be very rare and was called "Maiden's Blush."

A maiden's blush — the real thing — is also getting to be very rare. I don't suppose it would be feasible to offer a prize for one, but something should be done to bring them back into fashion. That would be a "new look" indeed;

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

THERE are many diseases that are likely to be overlooked because we don't expect them to turn up in our part of the world. One of these is amebiasis or amebic dysentery. For many years this disease, which is caused by infection with a parasite known as endamoeba histolytica, was thought to be confined to the tropics.

Today we know that is far from true.

There are two reasons for this unawareness of what constitutes a very real threat to our national health; first, that in many individuals the parasite may be present without causing symptoms; second, that even when symptoms are present, they may be mistakenly ascribed to other disorders.

The disease may be transmitted from one person to another by water or food contaminated with the cysts of the parasite. These cysts develop in the intestine, each forming four small endamoeba. These nest themselves in the little depressions of the lining membrane of the large intestine, sometimes forming small abscesses which may enlarge to form ulcers.

The symptoms due to the infection vary. In some cases, as I have mentioned, there may be no symptoms at all. In other instances, there may be mild irritation of the intestine, with a feeling of tiredness and sickness.

In other cases, the symptoms are worse, resembling those of appendicitis or ulcer of the stomach or gallbladder disease. In still other instances, there may be severe diarrhea, with griping pains and blood in the bowel movements.

Since the endamoeba may get into the liver and form abscesses, symptoms may occur suggesting the possibility of abscess with fever, pain, and tenderness in the liver area. Now and then the parasites may be carried to the lungs, brain, kidneys, or skin.

To make a definite diagnosis of amebiasis, the parasites or their cysts must be found in the bowel movements. In making the examination, it is important to have a fresh warm stool specimen.

Sometimes the proctoscope, which is a tube with a light may be passed into the lower bowel and some material from the edge of the ulcers of the bowel removed and examined for the presence of the amebiasis.

Once the diagnosis is made, the patient should be put to bed and treatment started.

Myers Seeking Peace On Civil Rights Issue

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, July 8 — Sen. Francis J. Myers, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Democratic platform committee for next week's convention at Philadelphia, has been breaking his political neck in an attempt to effect a last-minute compromise on the Truman civil rights program with threatening Southerners. His chief contact has been Sen. Clyde Hoey, of North Carolina, who is also a member of the committee.

Senator Myers

The current, tentative offer by Senator Myers consists of the suggestion that the civil rights plank simply repeat, with a few more flourishes and ruffles, the pledge of the 1944 document.

That this was an "innocuous" statement is obvious from the fact that it precipitated no rebellion against F. D. R. such as now menaces President Truman's prospects for renomination and re-election.

RIGHTS: Speaking for a supposedly important section of the Dixie group, Senator Hoey has countered tentatively with the proposal that, in addition to a mere rehash of the 1944 plank, the platform also contain a proviso that enforcement shall be entrusted to the individual commonwealths in accord with Jefferson's theory of state rights.

As yet, the compromise has not been whipped into sufficiently solid form for presentation to the White House. It is hoped, however, that the two factions can get together on it or its equivalent sufficiently in advance of the convention to quell the anti-Truman rebellion.

DANGER: Even an agreement on an "innocuous" civil rights plank, however, may not remove the danger to President Truman, which is based on the belief that his apparent weakness means inevitable defeat in November.

This feeling is generally prevalent, but it is strongest among such city bosses as Ed Flynn, of New York; Jake Arvey, of Chicago; Frank Hague, of New Jersey, and their respective satellites throughout the country.

For them, however, National Chairman J. Howard McGrath has a special appeal and argument. He directs his response particularly to the suggestion that the convention, regardless of any settlement of the civil rights problem, nominate another candidate.

Chairman McGrath uses almost the same language which the late Boise Penrose, then a GOP boss, spat out at that party's 1912 convention.

When the compromisers of that day begged Penrose and his inner circle to drop Taft, the Truman of 1912, with the warning that renomination of the Ohioan would lead to a third candidate (Teddy Roosevelt) and "wreck the party," Penrose replied: "That may be and probably is true. But we shall own the wreckage, and we shall rebuild the party for another day."

CONFESSION: The displacement of President Truman by any other political figure picked out of the hat, according to Chairman McGrath, would be such an abject confession of failure and bankruptcy that the Democrats might not recover from it for a generation.

It would be an inglorious end to a brilliant Democratic era which opened with F. D. R.'s first of four triumphs in 1932.

INTERPRETIVE

Soviet Union Loses Face In Disunity Among Reds

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

RECENT demonstrations of independence within the Russian sphere have aroused speculation as to whether eastern Europe's policeman may himself be sick.

Yugoslavia's refusal to be cowed by Russian disapproval was the first big crack in the Communist front. Then the Finns apparently felt safe in voting against Communism. Now we have open demonstrations of anti-Communism in Czechoslovakia.

Does Tito have any reason to believe the Russians will not come and get him? Were the Finnish Communists, like those in Italy, left alone at the last moment to sink or swim without Moscow's support? Does Gottwald lack the strength for drastic action against the Czech patriots?

First reaction to the Yugoslav affair among close observers was it would cause Russia to tighten the clamps throughout her sphere. Reports of troop movements in Romania and Bulgaria, and of impending purges wherever local Communists had failed to "sew up" their satrapies, have done nothing to weaken this reasoning.

But, as the U. S. ambassador to Belgrade said of the Yugoslav business, there's more than meets the eye.

THE WESTERN ALLIES were much interested in the timing of their protests to Moscow over the Berlin situation. Whether this concerned more than the Berlin situation itself is not known.

There is still a great deal to be learned about the Yugoslav affair. The sudden flareup between Yugoslavia and Albania, going much farther than the differences between Tito and the other Cominform members, is a puzzler within itself. Albania has been a Yugoslav dependency.

She may have seized the Cominform row as an opportunity to assert her independence. But, isolated as she is under Tito's guns, it wouldn't seem too likely. Also, the entire propaganda buildup for a split between Albania and Yugoslavia came from Belgrade. Until the announcement of defense measures, the silence in Tirana was mindful of the silence in Warsaw while Hitler was preparing his case for aggression against Poland.

Could it be that Tito has designs on Albania and that the whole flareup came when Russia said no? That's a purely speculative question, demonstrative of some of the uncertainties which surround attempts to appraise the situation within the Russian sphere.

Ex-printer

JOBS UPON A TIME

United States ambassador to the Soviet Union, Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith never went to West Point. He was an infantry reserve officer in 1917, and got his commission at Fort Benning, Ga. Smith served in France in World War I, and was wounded at the Marne. He was commissioned a first lieutenant in the regular Army in July, 1920, on the strength of his military record, but it was not until 1929, while Smith was serving in the Philippines, he was promoted to captain. As Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's former chief of staff, during World War II, Lt. Gen. Smith had charge of planning the invasion of Europe, and his skilful handling of this greatest of military operations, caused General Eisenhower to term him "one of the great" chiefs of staff of all times." He was promoted to lieutenant general in 1945, and appointed ambassador to the Soviets in 1946.

Senator Arthur Capper, 83, learned the printer's trade as a boy in Garnett, Kans., his home town. He was a reporter on a Topeka newspaper, then on a New York paper, and a Washington correspondent when he founded a Kansas farm paper in 1892. Today the Capper publications, of which he is president, include a number of farm journals and a Kansas City daily. Capper was governor of Kansas from 1914 to 1918, where one of his official acts was to appoint young Dwight D. Eisenhower to West Point. He has been a member of the United States Senate from 1919, second only to Senator Kenneth D. McKellar in length of service. His term expires in 1949.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, July 7 — Basil Rathbone was dishing to us one night about the days when he appeared with the late Mrs. Pat Campbell in "Mme. Sand" in England and he remembered the time a reporter came to the theater for an interview with him. But when the newsman got there, he couldn't remember Basil's name so he asked Mrs. C. the name of her leading man. She was being particularly "vague" that day but got right to the point by saying, "Oh — oh, I cahn't remember his name — but he's right over there. He's the young man with the two profiles stuck together!"

THIS WAS ONE of the funnier Hollywood stories that went around during the war: About the enthusiastic agent who was raving to a big producer about his latest client.

"What's he like?" asked the studio head.

"I tell you," said the ten percenter, "he's a combination of Gary Cooper, Humphrey Bogart and Cary Grant!"

"Oh, gwan'," said the biggie, "next thing you'll be telling me he's 4-F."

"Better than that!" exclaimed the agent. "He's an enemy alien!!"

OVER AT FOX they think they've found a vehicle (an unpublished original screen story by Harold Buchman and Charles Kaufman) that will finally lure Alice Faye back to the screen. It's a romantic yarn, still untitled. They can dream, can't they? It will take a lot of doing to get the Faye gal back in front of a camera—she just doesn't give a dern. She'd have to lose a lot of weight too . . . Two tomes dealing with the lecture platform have recently been sold to the movies. They are, "Accustomed As I Am," and Emily Kimbrough's "It Gives Me Great Pleasure."

TRUE STORY: Once upon a time Florence Vidor was vacationing in Atlantic City and was waiting for Jascha Heifetz (to whom she was married) to join her for the weekend. During the week, unbeknownst to her, he had purchased a new car and wired her, "Coming down with Chrysler." The telegraph operator got the spelling wrong and when Florence got the wire it read, "Coming down with Kreisler."

She wired back, "Come on down. But don't bring Kreisler. This is no time for fiddling!"

Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Hi'ya, Stranger!

IT'S GOLDEN JUBILEE year in New York, stranger. Fifty years ago Manhattan got married to Brooklyn and raised a family that includes the Bronx, Richmond and Queens. If you want to get a feeling of what it was like then, jump on the Third avenue El going downtown to the end of the line and take a look at the old Brooklyn Bridge. City Hall is just across the way, and it still wears a crinoline air that makes even the New Look seem much too modern to match its quaint architecture. There's the Woolworth Building on the Broadway corner. Remember when you were a kid and the phrase "taller than the Woolworth Building, I bet" was as extravagant as "sixty miles an hour"?

Statue of Liberty

COAST UPTOWN a few blocks and you'll hit the Bowery with all its fabulous Eugene O'Neill characters. Or hurry downtown the same distance and you can prance with all the merry little bulls of Wall Street. Me, I'll stroll past the digging of the new Brooklyn-to-Manhattan tunnel and at the Battery throw a salute to our favorite mademoiselle from Paris, the Statue of Liberty. Or take a ferry boat to Staten Island with my best beau and watch the Queen Mary go by.

Don't be too confused by our downtown lanes—remember this is the burg where West Twelfth street crosses West Fourth Street, and don't let it get you. Uptown, it's simpler.

IT'S A MAGICAL, whimsical city you've come to see, and no guidebook will tell you all the cock-eyed facts about it, but perhaps you'd like to pick up a few to take to the folks back home. For instance, do you know that the oldest thoroughfare in the Manhattan you're exploring was a street called Great Dock Street? It later came to be known as Pearl street, and now frequently is referred to as "Poil Street."

You might like to know, too, that this is the town in which the Bowery is said to be the only thoroughfare where it is impossible to find a cigarette butt on the pavement. That Broadway used to be known as the Great Highway—but that was back in 1674 when it became officially known as the Rialto. And that Mott Street and Pell Street, the two capital streets of Chinatown, were not named for Orientals at all, but were christened in honor of a couple of prominent Manhattan butchers named, respectively, John Pell and Joseph Mott.

YOU CAN VISIT this island a dozen times and not learn all its lore — you can live here and the same thing goes. Would you ever guess, for instance, that there are 2,700 cows kept inside the New York City limits? (And the Police Department has at least 23,000 bulls!) Get an eyeful of our parkways, too — they're the places on this island where the traffic actually moves. Notice our handsome cops in the Times Square section, all primed to answer your trickiest questions. Hark to the voices of our cabbies, colorful, loud and educational. Don't miss a thing!

And you'll have a sensational time.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Work Is Passed On... To Keep the Ring...

SCANNER — Those street intersection signs along North Hanover street, north of Oak, are big improvements, as well as educational. How many Pottstonians heard of Gay street before? . . . What's this to the reports that G. Ammon Davidheiser, borough treasurer, has hired a girl to do his municipal bookkeeping? . . . George F. Bushee Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bushee, 253 Beech street, has been admitted to the United States Military Academy at West Point as a cadet. A regular Army man, Bushee gained admission following competitive examinations. He recently was on field assignment with plebes.

THOUGHTS WHILE SHAVING — Often wondered how Pottstown police found store managers in case of fire or theft. It's often a headache to find the man with the key to business property in case of emergency. In San Diego, Calif., cops made a door-to-door canvass of business establishments. Now at a moment's notice their file turns up name, address and telephone number of every employe with a key . . . Don't let anybody kid you. Elephants do forget. In fact, their memories are poor. If elephants had good memories it would be impossible to train them because they are bound and starved when first captured.

CHANCES — Want to stay married? Move to Buffalo, N. Y. Your chances for staying married are best there, because Buffalo recorded the greatest divorce decline of any American community. In 1946, the peak year for divorces, Buffalo had 1121 annulments and 892 divorces. In 1947, Buffalo's record revealed only 349 annulments and 387 divorces. The US divorce rate in 1947 was lowest in eight years because of the high cost of living and the fact that more women are dependent since they lost their wartime jobs. Reno reported only 7122 divorces in 1947 compared with 11,060 in 1946. St. Louis had a 43 percent decrease and closed one of its three domestic relations courts!

DANGER — Do you cool off your children with the garden hose? Better not take a chance. Medico says its dangerous. The water comes out at chilling temperatures, the bodies of the children are warm and perspiring. So the sudden change from hot to cold is more than the young system can take. The result may be colds or other ills . . . Those new Life cigarets haven't made their local appearance . . . GIVE AWAY-DEP'T — Mrs. Raymond Stichter, 461 North Franklin street, has a table model radio she will give to the first caller.

CHIT-CHAT — Many physicians say that climbing stairs is likely to injure the health of people past their youth. Some doctors recommend the use of elevators even in private homes of more than one story . . . Circus elephants usually are females, because male elephants have uncertain dispositions and might prove dangerous . . . The oyster often produces more than 60 million eggs a year.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HANK P., 24, is a garage mechanic in the South.

"Dr. Crane, I'm making good wages and want to get married," he recently wrote to me, "But my girl thinks I ought to have more education.

"She thinks I don't have much ambition or I'd study and plan for a bigger future.

"Well, I never went to high school and I'm too old to go back now. So I been figuring on a correspondence course. You being a college professor, I thought maybe you could give me the real low down on studying by mail.

"Does it get you anywhere, Dr. Crane, or are these advertisements just baloney?"

MANY of the advertised correspondence courses are very good. If the student will diligently prepare each lesson and mail it to the home office for correction, he can make definite progress.

One of the great drawbacks to such types of course is the very human tendency to delay or procrastinate. The student feels tired tonight so he defers his studying till tomorrow.

Then he gets a date with his girl friend or some of the fellows stop to visit or to take him swimming or bowling, so he puts off his lessons another 24 hours. Possibly the deadline passes that week for sending in his completed written work, thus making it easier next week to do the same.

Such students continue for a few weeks, and then fall by the wayside. This is unfortunate, for they could procure a very good education if they would only apply themselves conscientiously.

One of our leading educators here in Chicago recently informed me that there are more distinguished graduates of one of our Chicago correspondence schools in law, than of both the law colleges of Northwestern university and the University of Chicago combined.

Are the correspondence students more intelligent? No, that isn't likely.

But they have an unusual amount of ambition, for they work in the day time and study till late at night. Moreover, they are employed in the business world, meeting people, and learning many of the practical lessons of life.

Lincoln, Edison and Ford are but three of the great figures in American history who were self educated. They didn't have the advantages of a correspondence course and Lincoln didn't even have access to a public library.

A college education is a luxury. It can be a valuable asset to any man or woman who modifies—the theoretical lectures which he receives with his own practical experience or horse sense.

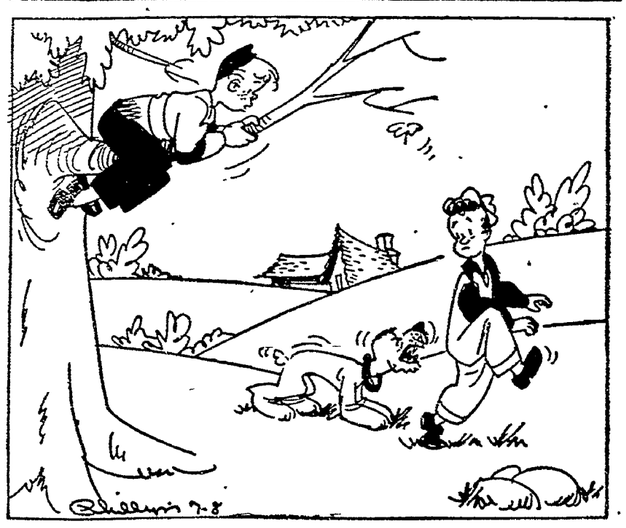

But college training alone doesn't make anybody successful. We also need perseverance, hard work, industry and thrift, honesty and morality.

Unfortunately, college graduates don't always possess these additional virtues.

More power to you men and women who have a hunger for knowledge and an admiration for cultural things!

12 Auto Violations Recorded by Police

Twelve motor violations in the borough were recorded by local police the past month, the monthly report of police activities prepared by Henry E. Groff, chief of police, shows.

Nine of the 12 offenses were for illegal parking, while two persons were charged with driving too fast for conditions and one person for hit-and-run, which was solved.

The report shows 109 calls for police, three accidents involving six cars, four complaints, 16 funerals and other escorts, six investigations, one burglary, which was solved, and two cases of contributing to juvenile delinquency.

School Board Picks Oley Constable to Collect Back Taxes

The appointment of Constable Emil F. Rhoda, of Oley, as delinquent tax collector for Boyertown school district was announced following a meeting of the board of school directors in the high school recently.

The outstanding taxes, which total nearly $7000, represent non-payment of the $5 per capita tax during the years 1938 to 1947, inclusive. In addition to the tax, each delinquent will be charged 11 percent penalty the first year and a 6 percent penalty each succeeding outstanding year.

The school board agreed to pay Rhoda a 15 percent commission and all printing expenses. He was placed under $1000 bond and was given a tax collector's warrant and full authority to collect the taxes.

THE NEWLY-APPOINTED delinquent tax collector will receive the outstanding duplicate from Collector Howard S. Schanley and then will mail statements to delinquents. Rhoda will be in the high school on several appointed days to collect the taxes.

The board rehired all custodians in three borough schools, granted them $100 annual increases in salary and a one-week vacation. Covered by the order are Harvey K. Heacock, Charles Wise, Walter W. Davidheiser and Grover Schlotterer, of the high school; LeRoy Erb, of Washington elementary school, and Abraham Babb, of Lincoln school.

Hannah Sweinhart and Sallie Wolfgang, were rehired and granted salary increases of $100. Ruth R. Yoder, administrative secretary to George B. Swinehart, supervising principal, and Arlene L. Custer, secretary to Lawrence E. Grim, high school principal, were granted two-weeks' vacations.

BOARD MEMBERS agreed to advertise for bids for grading of a field below the high school athletic field. When completed, the new addition will be used for football practice, softball and hockey.

Painting of rooms in the three borough schools, as per specifications, will be done by Charles O. Johnson, who submitted a bid of $883.20. He was the only bidder.

Council Warns Borough Residents to Cut Weeds; Health Officials Cite Dangers

"Cut those weeds."

With those words of advice and warning, borough council adjourned its regular monthly meeting in Town hall the past Tuesday at 11:25 p. m.

Included in the warning are vacant lots and backyards where weeds are left unattended. Health authorities point out that such places breed mosquitoes and are a source of trouble for persons with active allergies, such as hayfever.

Daniel Frey, whose home is across Route 73 from Water street, was granted permission to connect to the borough water main.

INTEREST AMOUNTING to $328 due Aug. 1 on water bonds was ordered paid.

The agreement between the borough and Mrs. Alice Mest regarding the spotlight at the intersection of East Philadelphia avenue and Washington street was signed and filed with borough records.

The light is installed on Mest News agency building on the northeast corner of the intersection.

Borough records showed building permits issued to the following during the past month: Curtis Horn, 207 North Reading avenue; Charles A. Y. Davidheiser, 646 East Philadelphia avenue; Harvey Butterweck, 640 East Philadelphia avenue, and John Weand, 20 East Fifth street.

What To Do For That Sluggish, Down-and-Out Feeling

Remember the time when you could eat like a horse, bubbled-over with energy, felt happy as a lark? Was it not because you liked to eat—didn't know what indigestion was, felt strong as an ox? As age advances the "old stomach and the ever-changing blood" need help. Now you may again release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Gas Firm Seeks PUC Approval for Increase in Rates

Approximately 550 subscribers of the Boyertown Gas and Fuel company will be affected by a proposed rate increase filed by the firm with the Public Utility commission in Harrisburg yesterday. Effective date is Sept. 1 if the request is approved.

The company notified subscribers by post card of its application for a boost in rates, citing increased costs of labor and basic materials for its action.

Dr. J. Elmer Porter, Pottstown, owner and president of the firm, said the new rates would include the previous minimum charge of 50 cents for the first 100 cubic feet. The next 900 cubic feet would sell at a 20-cent rate, a hike of five cents. Another increase under the new rates would be 14 cents over the 4000 cubic feet mark, a jump of two cents in price.

Dr. Porter declared the firm hasn't boosted rates since 1937.

WARRENDALE, July 7 (AP)—Leonard Timko, 11-year-old West Mifflin boy, drowned today in the Warrendale swimming pool.

Boyertown Obituaries

JAMES C. RHOADS, 78, of GILBERTSVILLE, died suddenly late the past Tuesday night at the residence of Reuben Miller, in Shanesville, where he had come on a visit the previous day.

Deputy Coroner Frank Esterly, of Earl township, was called and pronounced death due to a heart condition. Rhoads' body was discovered by Lewis Groff early yesterday morning.

A native of Pike township, Rhoads was a son of the late Jacob and Melinda (Conrad) Rhoads. He was a member of Keystone Fire company of Boyertown and Gilbertsville Fire company, and Boyertown Nest 22, Fraternal Order of Orioles. He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held from a funeral home at 124 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown, Saturday at 2 p. m. The Rev. David F. Longacre, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, will officiate. Interment will be made in Hill Church cemetery.

Funeral services for the REV. HOWARD A. ALTHOUSE, husband of Nora (Schoelkopf) Althouse, of 419 EAST FOURTH STREET, BOYERTOWN, were held yesterday from a Warwick street funeral home, Boyertown, at 1 p. m.

Further services were held in St. Paul's Union church, Amityville, at 2 p. m. The Rev. Sheldon Mackey, president of Reading Synod; the Rev. Dr. Calvin M. DeLong, the Rev William H. Solly, pastor of Swamp-Amity charge, and the Rev. David F. Longacre, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Boyertown, officiated. Interment was made in Charles Evans cemetery, Reading.

Masonic services were held at the grave. Worshipful Master Warren D. Sands was in charge, assisted by Newton V. Johnson, Lester Stauffer, Lawrence Miller, Lawrence Wright and Ira Hoch.

Bearers were James S. Weidner and Walter K. Herbein, consistory members of St. Paul's Reformed church, Amityville; Herbert B. Wagner and William S. Hetrick, consistory members of Faulkner Swamp church; Clayton A. Mest and Paul H. Conrad, consistory members of Trinity Reformed church, Bechtelsville, and Elwood H. Bauman and Paul H. Moser, neighbors.

Joint Picinc Arranged By Lions Clubs July 22

In accordance with its Summer schedule, the Lions club of Boyertown will not meet tonight.

Next club activity will be a joint picnic with the Bally club at Boyertown Rod and Gun club, East Front street, Thursday, July 22.

Court Approves Distribution of $510,301 In Estate of Manufacturer A. E. Vaughan

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, July 7—A balance of principal of $510,301 36 and of income of $17,102.92 in the estate of Andrew E. Vaughan, Pottstown manufacturer who died July 19, 1946, was distributed by an adjudication by Judge Holland, Orphans court, it was disclosed today.

In accordance with terms of Mr. Vaughan's will the wife, Clara V. Vaughan, is awarded $17,000 and the balance is placed in trust with Provident Trust company of Philadelphia and Andrew E. Vaughan Jr. and Nelson M. Vaughan, trustees, to pay the income to Mrs. Vaughan for life.

Adjudications in other estates include:

Lewis T. Neiman, Pottstown, who died July 12, 1947, balance of $1016.72 awarded one-sixth each to sons and daughters, Ellen N. Maier, Walter R. Neiman, Martha N. Arnold, Laura N. Sevison, Ralph E. Neiman and Pearl N. Fulmer.

RALPH E. SHANER, Pottstown, who died April 7, 1945, balance of $1748.63 awarded equally to Ralph F. Shaner, Rachel S. Bowman and George F. Shaner, sons and daughter.

Josephine Deitra, Pottstown, who died Feb. 18, 1947, balance of $1141.68 awarded one-half each to Mary Roos and Charles Latham, daughter and son.

The value of personal property in the following estates is shown by inventories filed in the Register of Wills office:

Dr. Frederic Bushong, Pottstown, $15,498.75, and Mary Agnes Usher, Pottstown, $1909.18.

Regulations Established For Reservist Exemptions

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—Defense Secretary Forrestal has ruled that reserve units must hold 35 scheduled drills a year in order for their draft-age members to be exempt from induction.

He told a news conference today that he acted on recommendations of the Army, Navy and Air departments when establishing the requirements.

Membership in a federally recognized National Guard unit also exempts a man.

The ruling gives draft exemption to those men who by midnight of June 24 (the day President Truman signed the draft bill) were enlisted in reserve organizations having a minimum of "35 scheduled drills or training periods, or days of active federal service, or any combination thereof, per year."

Soaring hawks often circle over the edge of a forest or cliffs, or other places where upcurrents of air can be found.

Ham, Opium Combination Brings $15,750 Fine

HONG KONG, July 7 (AP) — Ham and eggs, yes. But — ham and opium, no. Five hams flown into the Colony some weeks ago were found to contain 630 raels of raw opium — to the surprise of an innocent flight sergeant who had brought them in from Kunming for a Chinese friend. The friend was fined $15,750.

2 Sunday Schools To Hold Outing on Amityville Grounds

The annual outing of the Amityville Union Lutheran and Reformed Sunday schools will be held Saturday night on the church grounds adjoining the chapel.

In case of rain, the event will be held the following Wednesday.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Pottstown band, the concert to begin at 8:15 o'clock. All members of the schools up to and including the intermediate departments will receive free refreshment tickets.

At a meeting of the executive board, the following committees were named:

Ice cream and soft drinks: Leroy Haas, W. S. S. Kutz, George Thompson, Stauffer Kutz, Hervert Weiss, Harold Weiss, Esterly Dunn and Albert Kutz; frankfurters: Lillie Rhoads, Alice Fisher and Olivia Ehst; fruit punch: Minnie Rhoads, Adeline Marsteller and Dora George; cakes and coffee: Alice Body, Mary Reeser and Mrs. Dunn; hamburgers: Alice Kutz, Nellie Brown, Esther Kutz, Beulah Groff, Florence Wise, Mary Weiss, Mary High, Marie Kutz, Alberta Body, Catherine Harner, Esther Fisher and Esther Davis.

Soup: Mrs. Annie Demming, Mrs. Catherine Yanos and Mrs. Marian Haas; band collectors: W. J. Moser, Mrs. Miriam Geoger, Mrs. Catharine Madeira, Nellie Rhoads and Howard J. Body; candy: Ida Trainer, Dorothy Smith, Martha Wenger, Alice Schulza, Martha Weidner and Betty Kutz; fancy work: Mrs. Vernon Davis, Stalle Baker, Marie Kutz, Marie Weiss and Mrs. Peterson; traffic and parking: Walter Grainger, Harvey Rhoads, Irwin D. Geiger, Charles Demming, Edwin Marsteller and Paul Cross.

The Rev. William H. Solly is pastor of the Reformed church and Rev. Paul J. Dumidore is pastor of the Lutheran church, with the Sunday schools being headed by Henry A. Body and Charles S. Rhoads.

Restaurant Association Lists Meeting Tonight

The first general meeting of the Pottstown and Suburban Restaurant association will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Art's diner.

The purpose of the meeting is familiarization of the 46 members with the organization and beginnings of the new group.

Four speakers connected with the Pennsylvania Restaurant association are listed to speak.

They are Edwin J. Birkett, newly-elected president of the state organization; Anna Mary Mumma, executive secretary of the state group; John Weaver, past president of the state body, and Paul Heine, chief of the Lancaster association.

Mrs. Marian M. Conrad, president of the local organization will preside.

Mother of Eight Found Strangled to Death

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 7 (AP)—The nude body of a 33-year-old mother of eight—a brassiere knotted tightly about her neck and her legs tied to bushes with her stockings—was found today a short distance from her home.

The body of Mrs. Evelyn Burns was discovered by two children playing around bushes at the entrance of the Roger Williams housing project. The remainder of the woman's clothing was found nearby.

Dr. John A. Picozzi, medical examiner, said death apparently was caused by strangulation. He performed an autopsy late in the day, but results were not known immediately.

Police Chief Charles A. Higgins said that the woman left her home in the housing project about 8:45 p. m. last night to go to the store.

Death Cell Completed For War Refugee

CARSON CITY, Nev., July 7 (AP)—A newly-built death cell was ready tonight for Laszlo Varga, 19, Hungarian war refugee and convicted rape murderer, who will be executed here the week of Sept. 12-18.

He was sentenced in Elko today for the March 22 murder of Mrs. Billee Rahe Morning, 24. Her husband, a minister, found her mutilated body tied to her bed.

Varga will be brought here early tomorrow and put in the cell, which the Nevada State prison began constructing before his trial.

The only two cells previously available in death row are occupied by Owen Butner of Reno, sentenced to die for wife murder; and David Blackwell, 18, Tacoma, Wash., condemned for the murder of two Reno policemen the past year.

The "missing link" between birds and reptiles is a peculiar creature, Archeopteryx, that lived about 125 million years ago.

Cyclist

Carrying a Bible as her "protection," Norma Belloff, of San Diego, Calif., has pedaled to New York and poses at Pittsburgh on way back home. Cycling 70 miles daily she expects to be home by Aug. 11.

Actor Rex Harrison To Be Questioned in Death of Miss Landis

HOLLYWOOD, July 7 (AP)—British movie actor Rex Harrison has agreed to appear for questioning tomorrow in connection with the suicide of actress Carole Landis, Coroner Ben Brown announced.

Harrison had dinner with Miss Landis the past Sunday night, a few hours before she swallowed the sleeping pills which took her life. He also found her body Monday in the bathroom of her Riviera home.

Meantime, the coroner's chemist, R. J. Abernathy, announced death resulted from an overdose of sleeping pills. He said his examination revealed the presence of five milligrams of seconal — a lethal dose.

ABERNATHY ALSO SAID tests showed the blood contained 0.12 ethanol—which is ethyl alcohol. He added a showing of 0.15 ethanol generally means intoxication.

Still in abeyance is the question of a formal inquest.

The coroner added, "Our intent in calling Mr. Harrison is to leave nothing undone to clear up completely any unexplained points in Miss Landis' death."

Autopsy surgeons said their examination disclosed the actress could not have become a mother. They said she had a "peculiar natural condition," not surgical, of which she may not have been aware.

Relatives and friends believe her decision to end her life was made suddenly. All agreed she seemed happy and gay a day or so before she took the sleeping tablets.

Reds Lose Two Seats In Netherlands Election

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, Thursday, July 8 (AP)—The Communists lost two of their ten lower chamber parliamentary seats in yesterday's general elections, complete returns showed early today. The Catholic People's party retained its place as the nation's No. 1 political group.

The middle-of-the-road Catholics won 1,531,326 votes of the 4,933,735 cast yesterday, thus retaining its 32 seats. The Labor party, partners of the Catholics in the coalition government, polled 1,263,366 votes and lost two of its 29 seats.

Summer Camp Spot For Needy Children Backed by Governor

INDIANTOWN GAP, July 7 (AP)—The vanguard of some 400 boys moved into the Indiantown Gap military reservation today for a 11-day first hand study of Americanism that may become a permanent State project.

Gov. James H. Duff, who visited the camp on the opening day, said it was a "guinea pig experiment" to determine whether the State shall establish a similar large-scale camp next year for underprivileged children from all over the State.

The present camp is sponsored by the Pennsylvania American Legion and is under the direction of Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, State adjutant general. Outstanding boys were selected by local Legion officials to participate.

"IF IT WORKS OUT satisfactorily," Duff explained, "it is my purpose to ask the General assembly to provide funds to have a Summer camp for underprivileged children on a state-wide basis. It will give them a chance to see what Pennsylvania is like in the mountain areas and there can be some teaching of Americanism in conjunction with Summer vacations."

The governor said the Federal and State governments have invested $80,000,000 in the military reservation which is "only used a small part of the year for military purposes."

He said a camp for children, available to both boys and girls, would be held at a time which won't interfere with the reservation's military purposes.

"I feel this plan will have overwhelming public support," Duff added.

THE AMERICAN LEGION is financing the feeding of the boys in the present camp and also is providing instructors. The State, on the other hand, provides the quarters and lifeguards for swimming.

The boys moved into barracks in the old Civilian Conservation corps area of the reservation within a stone's throw of a lake where they can swim.

Duff went to the camp to see for himself how the boys were taking over. Senator Edward Martin was another notable expected to visit the camp.

State Commander William L. Windsor 3d, and State Adjutant Ed Linsky also were on hand.

Death Sentence Given Negro in Axe Slaying

LOGAN, W. Va., July 7 (AP)—Matthew Perison, 33-year-old Negro Boy Scout leader, today was sentenced to hang for the axe slaying of his 70-year-old father-in-law the past April.

Perison also was charged with slaying his wife and mother-in-law. He said he got into an argument with his wife over buying a used car.

At the time of his arrest, Perison was quoted as saying "I should be hanged." Judge Chambers asked him if he felt the same way today.

"No," said Perison. "Now I want to live and help atone for my sins."

Deceased Treasurer Honored by Grange

The charter of the Sanatoga Grange was draped in black crepe last night at a regular meeting in memory of Mrs. Sarah Keim, member who died the past month.

Mrs. Keim had been treasurer of the organization for the past nine years.

Wilmer Renninger, who was gate-keeper the past year, was installed in her place. He was elected to the post the past meeting.

It was announced that a sunset service for all granges will be held July 25 at 7:30 p. m. in Trappe Lutheran church.

Phoenixville Girl Becomes Bride Of George I. Sload

George I. Sload, son of Mrs. Edna Sload, Royersford, and Miss Catherine Louise Funk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Funk, Township Line road, near Zion's church, Spring City, were united in marriage the past Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church by the Rev. Robert F. Brillhart, pastor. The double ring ceremony was used.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Wayne G. Hoffman, aunt of the bride, gave a half-hour recital of bridal music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attendants were Miss Ruth Funk, sister of the bride, who was maid-of-honor, and John Sload, brother of the bridegroom, best man. Ushers were William H. Funk, Glen Moore, brother of the bride, and Ralph Thomas, Riverdale, Md., brother-in-law of the bride.

A RECEPTION followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Ohio, to be gone one week. They will live in Royersford.

The bride, who was graduated from Phoenixville High school and University hospital, Philadelphia, returned three years ago from China, where she served five years under a commission from the Evangelical and Reformed church. Since her return, she has been employed at Phoenixville hospital.

Mr. Sload, a graduate of Royersford High school, served three years in the Merchant Marine during World War II.

Indian Life Explained By Kin of Governor

Samuel W. Pennypacker, of Schwenkville, grandson of the late former Governor Pennypacker, was guest speaker at a semi-monthly meeting of Royersford Lions club last night at Spring-Ford Country club.

Pennypacker, an authority on the American Indian, told the Lions there were 250 Indian languages in North America. He told of their customs and showed photographs, masks, head dresses, relics, spoons, pipes, baskets, turtle shells and utensils.

He also related his impressions of a trip to Mexico. Lion W. D. Geiser was chairman of the program.

Clarence Foreman, president of the club, gave the invocation. Singing was led by Lion Erick Swenson. Carl W. Straub was a guest of the club.

Former Teacher to Speak At Church Group Meeting

A meeting of the Women of the Church of Spring City Lutheran church has been planned for Monday night at 8 o'clock.

An interesting program has been arranged, with special music and a guest speaker, Mrs. Wilbur Koons, Royersford, who will talk on the Konnarock school, Virginia, and the work she did as a teacher there during the Summer months. Refreshments will be served.

Mediterranean Fleet Sails to Eastern Section

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP) — The major portion of the American Mediterranean fleet is moving into the Eastern Mediterranean, at a time when warfare between Jews and Arabs threatens to resume.

However, Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a news conference today there was "no significance" to the movements.

"They are according to schedule. They have no reference to any events of recent days or weeks," he said.

Safety Campaign By County Council Cites Farm Dangers

Extension of safety activities to include farms in the county due to the past number of tractor deaths, was approved yesterday afternoon when the Montgomery County Safety Council met in the Norristown courthouse.

Farmers permitting children under 16 to drive tractors will be held responsible for accidents, it was ascertained.

The council proposes to introduce the safety campaign through local granges, in which a film entitled "Paradise Valley," depicting the mechanics of farm life and placing emphasis on farm dangers, will be shown. The film is being obtained through H. A. Rankin, council member from the New Hanover Grange.

Naval Guns Mark End Of Destroyer Conyngham

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 7 (AP)—Gun and aerial bombardment has sunk another of the Bikini atom target ships, the U. S. destroyer Conyngham.

The 11th Naval district announced today the 12-year-old destroyer went down Friday off the Southern California coast—the same area in which the heavy cruiser Salt Lake City was sunk in May. Both ships were targets for gunnery and aerial bombardment practice.

Six other destroyers and Marine corps planes attacked the Conyngham for 25 minutes before she sank, the announcement said. She was the Navy's second Conyngham, named for Revolutionary War Capt. Gustavus Conyngham.

Two Airmen Killed In Crash of Transport

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 7 (AP)—Two Greenville Air Force base pilots were killed tonight when their C47 transport plane which had just cut two gliders loose from a tow cable, dived to the earth and burst into flames on the base.

Col. Paul H. Prentiss, base commander, said that only two men were aboard the craft.

The cause of the crash has not been determined.

The plane was virtually consumed by flames from high octane gasoline There was one unofficial report that a fire was raging in the plane's cockpit before it crashed to the earth.

The heat from the flames kept fire fighters some distance away for about 30 minutes after the crash at about 9:20 p. m.

Official Claims Arabs Will Not Extend Truce

CAIRO, July 7 (AP)—An Arab league spokesman said tonight the Palestine war between Jews and Arabs will be resumed Friday.

Israel was reported to have accepted Count Folke Bernadotte's proposal to extend the Palestine truce beyond the Friday deadline. The Arab league spokesman said, however, there would be no extension of the four-week truce.

Asked if his statement meant that warfare would start again, the Arab replied, "I mean nothing else."

Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, has not received an official reply on the truce extension from either the Jews or Arabs. A well-informed source in Tel Aviv said, however, the Israeli government is willing to continue the truce during further negotiations.

He said Israel will not deal now with Bernadotte's proposals to demilitarize Jerusalem and the Haifa port area. The Arabs already have rejected these proposals.

ABDEL RAHMAN Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab league, said the league will try to have its reply on the truce ready tomorrow.

In Jerusalem, 225 Haganah soldiers evacuated Hadassah hospital and Hebrew university. This left the twin American-financed institutions under control of United Nations security police.

King Farouk of Egypt visited the Southern Palestine front. He spent last night with Egyptian soldiers. An interior ministry communique said the monarch chatted with officers and men and shared their food.

A dispatch from Beirut, capital of Lebanon, said the care of 150,000 Palestine refugees in that country has created a serious problem.

The dispatch quoted the newspaper Alhadith as saying the refugees number about one-fourth of the country's population. The newspaper blamed the government for admitting more refugees than it could handle in the belief the Palestine conflict would end quickly. The paper suggested asking the Arab states to help care for the refugees.

87,000 'Captive' Miners Idle in Contract Dispute

PITTSBURGH, July 7 (AP)—More than 87,000 soft coal miners in seven states remained idle today while the government hurried steps at Washington to settle the two-day-old walkout of captive miners.

Men staying from work at captive mines, meaning those operated by steel firms, included: Pennsylvania, 27,000; West Virginia, 15,000; Alabama, 5700; Kentucky, 1924; Colorado, 1800; Utah, 1000. They totaled 52,424.

The captive diggers said they wouldn't work without a contract, which steel firms refused to sign because of a union shop demand which they claim violates the Taft-Hartley law.

Meanwhile the number of idle commercial miners shrank from 49,500 yesterday to 37,000 today. They comprise 20,000 in West Virginia, 14,000 in Western Pennsylvania, and 3000 in Indiana. The output of commercial mines goes to consumers other than steel plants, such as householders and various industries.

* * *

THE COMMERCIAL miners are covered by a new contract granting a $1-per-day pay increase and a doubled welfare fund royalty, which is now 20 cents per ton of coal dug.

Western Pennsylvania coal operators said the commercial walkouts were in sympathy with the captives.

John P. Busarello, president of United Mine Workers District 5 at Pittsburgh, reported union leaders were in the field trying to end the walkouts of commercial miners. Coal operators protested to Lewis yesterday that walkouts violated their contract.

Government May Seek Order Against Miners

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—The government is due to decide within 24 hours whether to seek a court order against the strike which has tied up the "captive" coal mines that supply America's steel mills.

Robert N. Denham, general-counsel of the National Labor Relations board, assigned a squad of aides today to check unfair labor practice charges leveled by the steel companies against John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers.

"We hope to complete our investigation today," Denham said. "Then, within 24 hours, we should be in a position to decide whether to issue a formal complaint and ask the district court for an injunction."

Railroads Accused Of 'Fleecing' U. S. During Past War

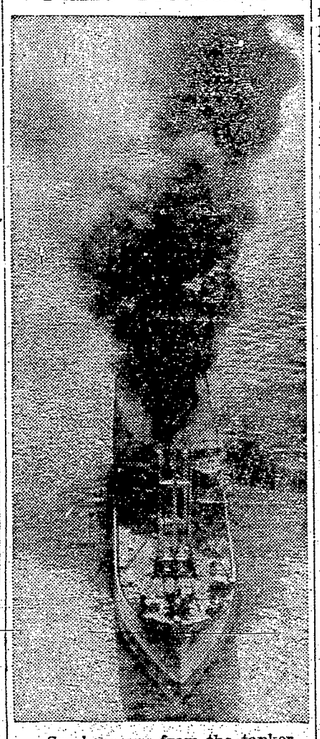

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP)—A Government official said today the nation's railroads exploited "a grandiose scheme to gouge the government" on the shipment of war materials during World War II.

Thomas F. Proctor, an official of the solicitor's office of the Post Office department, made the accusation. He testified before a House expenditures subcommittee which is investigating alleged multi-million dollar overpayments by the government to the railroads.

Rep. Bender (R-Ohio), subcommittee chairman, estimated Federal overpayments at between $1,000,000,000 and $3,000,000,000.

Proctor brought in the name of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, wartime Army Air Forces procurement officer, who has been convicted of subornation of perjury in connection with the handling of war contracts.

Nine Rescued

Smoke pours from the tanker Edgewater on the Great Lakes after an explosion yesterday. Nine injured men were taken off the ship by a Coast Guard rescue plane. Later, the blaze was extinguished by other members of the crew. The tanker was carrying 31,000 barrels of gasoline.

Italian Police Break Up Riot At Struck Plant

ROME, July 7 (AP)—Police riot squads hurled tear gas bombs in Milan today after workers occupied part of a strike-bound food factory.

Tanks, armored cars and jeeps blockaded the area for more than two hours while police dispersed a fighting, jeering crowd of workers.

Several persons were bruised in fist fights. An agent of the struck Motta food products factory was injured by a flying tear gas bomb.

No arrests were reported.

WORKERS' SPOKESMEN said 30 strikers "symbolically" invaded part of the factory in protest against what they called management's attempts to continue operations.

Security Council Asks Jews, Arabs For Truce Extension

LAKE SUCCESS, July 7 (AP)—The United Nations Security council late today appealed to the Jews and Arabs to extend the truce in Palestine. The vote was 8 to 0.

Russia, the Soviet Ukraine and Syria abstained on the ballot, which was taken on a British resolution. The expiration date of the new truce was left open. The present armistice expires Friday.

Neither the Arabs nor Jews have yet officially declared whether they will agree to extend the truce. However, in Cairo an Arab league spokesman said there would be no continuation of the cease-fire.

Soviet delegate Andrei A. Gromyko said he could not support the extension move because of the truce conditions drafted by Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. mediator.

The vote came in a spirited session where Gromyko charged that Bernadotte's peace proposals "could only have been conceived in the foreign office of the United Kingdom" and an Arab delegate walked out in a row over recognition of the new Jewish state of Israel.

Gromyko delivered a lengthy attack on the British, once declaring that Bernadotte was just a front for the London government.

Albanian Group Walks Out of 3-Power Meeting In Protest of Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, July 7 (AP)—Albanian delegates walked out of a huge meeting of Yugoslav, Albanian and Hungarian war invalids today.

It was a demonstration against speeches which had extolled the Yugoslav partisan struggle during the war and had blasted the Cominform charges against Marshal Tito's Communist regime.

SINGER RECOVERING

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Marian Anderson, Negro contralto, is recovering from a major operation at Brooklyn Jewish hospital, it was announced today.

Czechs to Probe Pro-Benes Group

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, July 7 (AP) — The government ordered a probe of the Sokol Congress today as Czechs again staged popular demonstrations for former President Eduard Benes.

The Prague radio said "the question of future participation of foreign delegations in the Slet (the Bohemian name for the Sokol Society Congress) will be studied" by the Communist-dominated cabinet. Ministers were ordered to report on "the results of the Slet" at the next cabinet meeting.

The decision to probe the cultural and athletic organization followed a passive demonstration against Communist President Klement Gottwald during Tuesday's Sokol parade. The marchers cheered for Benes and for Premier-Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, now in trouble with the Communist parties of other Eastern European nations.

EARLY TODAY POLICE broke up groups which traveled about the city cheering Benes, singing the national athem and even paying apparent homage to the late Woodrow Wilson.

Another development today was an order for a Communist review of the high command of the Czech army. Gen. J. Prochazka, the army's education director, said in a newspaper article that henceforth the army would have political instruction and that "He who has no positive attitude toward the people cannot serve as a commander."

Miss Helen B. Miller Is Summer Bride In Mountville Church

Miss Helen B. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton H. Miller, 371 Beech street, and Mr. Douglas E. Griesemer, son of Mr. Fred C. Griesemer, Hanover Heights, were united in marriage recently at Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Mountville, Lancaster county.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Kalkbrenner, pastor. Miss Nancy Seiths presented an organ prelude and played during the rites.

The bride was attired in an ivory gabardine suit with white accessories. She carried a small white prayer book to which was attached a white orchid.

Her sister, Miss Betty B. Miller, appeared as maid of honor in a pink linen suit. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers.

MR. THOMAS W. Bunting, of Pottstown, performed the duties of best man.

Mrs. Miller, the mother of the bride, chose a blue print dress with white accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

A reception for the guests followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a honeymoon trip to New York City. Upon their return they will reside in Mountville.

The bride is a graduate of Pottstown High school and until recently was employed as a secretary by the Firestone Tire and Rubber company. Mr. Griesemer is employed by the Holland Furnace company as sales engineer, in Lancaster.

Baseball Game Attracts Scout Troop 6 Members

Members of Girl Scout Troop 6 of First Methodist church played baseball at Sunnybrook park Tuesday afternoon in place of their regular meeting. Following the ball game, marshmallows were roasted in the park.

The group recently returned from a trip to the Daniel Boone Homestead camp where they indulged in swimming and nature hunts, studied handicraft and made three-mile hikes to the nearest store.

Accompanying the girls on both trips were their leaders, Mrs. Henry T. Schneider, Mrs. Ruth Cressman, Miss Alverta Waddell and Mrs. Harry Shellenberger.

The meeting will not be held next week as the troop members will attend the all-Pottstown Girl Scout roller skating party at Ringing Rocks park Tuesday at 1 o'clock.

Jelly Making Explained To Members of 4H Club

"Do's and Don'ts of Jelly Making" was the subject of a talk given by Gertrude Christman at a meeting of the Bethel 4-H club on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Doris Weidner, Brownback's Corner.

Details on her trip to New York City were given by Bertha McFarland, after which work on sewing projects was continued by the 11 members present.

Mrs. Weidner is the leader of the group while Miss Christman was in charge of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held on July 13.

Other members present were: Laura Mae Bechtel, Emma Hughes, Jolyn Stone, Laurajean Crosland, Dorothy Crosland, Eleanor Prizer, Dorothy Stauffer, Joyce Heck and Leah Sypherd.

'Sistie' Boettiger, Van H. Seagraves Wed in Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 7 (AP)—Anna Eleanor Boettiger, eldest granddaughter of the late President Roosevelt, and Van H. Seagraves of Oregon City, Oregon, were married today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Boettiger.

The bride, now 21 years old, lived and played at the White House 15 years ago during the early days of the Roosevelt administration. She and her brother, Curtis R. Boettiger, were known then throughout the nation as "Sistie" and "Buzzie."

The Rev. Morton T. Kelsey of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Phoenix married the young couple. They were unattended. The bride was given in marriage by John Boettiger, who returned from a European writing assignment to attend the wedding.

MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, grandmother of the bride and widow of the President, was present.

The bride wore an aluminum-striped lime green cotton ballerina dress with fitted bodice. Her strapless shoulders were covered with a scarf in stole effect and she wore a matching headband with silver ribbon rosettes. Her silver ballet slippers were buckled with rhinestone clips and she carried tiny green orchids and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Seagraves of Oregon City. He is a Republican.

Seagraves and his bride met at Reed college in Portland, Ore., where they were students together. He graduated this year. The bride completed her third year of college work. Seagraves served in the Navy during the war. He is 25 years old. "Sistie" and "Buzzie" lived at the White House in 1933-35. They were then perhaps the best known and most photographed children in the country. The brother recently graduated from Northwestern Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva, Wis.

Stowe Couple United At Evening Ceremony In St. Peter's Church

The Rev. Kenneth R. Anderson, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony last night that united Miss Jean Keller and Mr. Harry Brightbill Jr. in marriage.

The ceremony was performed in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Stowe.

Miss Keller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gulliver, West High street, Stowe, while Mr. Brightbill is the son of Mrs. Florence Brightbill, 453 West High street, Stowe.

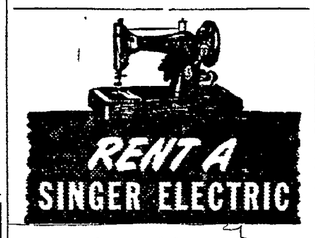

A white crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and red rose buds formed the bridal attire. Miss June Keller, a sister of the bride and her only attendant, was dressed in a lime dress with white accessories and a corsage of white rose buds.

Mr. Daniel Stetler, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Gulliver, mother of the bride, chose a gray dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations, while the mother of the bridegroom chose a gray print dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A luncheon was served to the bridal party and guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gulliver. The couple will reside at the home of the bridegroom.

Cook cauliflower quickly in boiling, salted water. If the flower clusters are separated, 10 to 15 minutes should be enough. If the head is left whole, allow from 25 to 30 minutes.

Miss Laura E. Glass And Arthur N. Wade United in Marriage

The marriage of Miss Laura Elizabeth Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair J. Glass, of Joanna Heights, Elverson RD 2, and Mr. Arthur Nathaniel Wade, son of Mr. Addison R. Wade and the late Mrs. Elizabeth W. Wade, of Harmonyville, took place recently in the Harmony Methodist church, Joanna, with the Rev. Julius Meyer officiating, and the assistance of the Rev. John Graves.

Miss Kathryn Glass served as maid of honor and Miss Helen Glass as bridesmaid. Both are sisters of the bride.

Performing the duties of the bestman was Mr. Wayne A. Wade, brother of the bridegroom, while the Messrs. Elmer and James Glass, brothers of the bride, were the ushers.

The bride was attired in a white lace gown, net veil and train with fingertip net veil falling from a tiara crown. She carried a white orchid attached to a white Bible and all white accessories.

The Misses Kathryn and Helen Glass were attired in white dresses with white accessories and wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held for the couple at the home of the bride's parents, after which they left for a honeymoon in Atlantic City. They will make their home in Joanna Heights.

Mrs. Wade attended Morgantown High school and Mr. Wade attended Warwick High school. He served two years in the European theater of operations during the past war and is now employed at the Berman Sales and Service company.

Kehl-Ludy Nuptials Performed in Kutztown

Miss Mary Jane Ludy recently became the bride of Mr. Albert K. Kehl at the home of the Rev. A. L. Brumbach, pastor, College Hill, Kutztown.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ludy, Pottstown RD 3, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. John Kehl, Kempton, RD 1.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kehl, Boyertown RD 2, the former a brother of the bridegroom, attended the couple.

Phyllis Ann Nore Feted On Birthday Anniversary

A large group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Miss Phyllis Ann Nore recently, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nore, I Ash street, Stowe, feted her at a birthday anniversary party.

The color scheme was pink and white with the centerpiece on the attractively appointed table being a pink and white cake.

After the celebrant received her many lovely gifts, games were played and refreshments were served.

Among those attending were: Gabriel and Ronald Nore, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ottavano and children, Edward, James, Anna Mae and son-in-law Jack; Miss Helen Sperat, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Canceliere and daughter, Mary Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wagg and daughters, Gloria and Patsy Ann; Mr. Guy Sperat, Mr. Domonic Paolucci and son, Joseph; Mrs. Naomi Stetler and children, Lucille, Norma, Milton, Walter, Ernest, Shirley and Joanne; Albert Patter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DiGiosia and children, Samuel Jr., Victor, Nina and Ronald; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DiGiosia and daughter, Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. John Dematteo and daughter, Diana, Miss Margaret Shanley and Miss Eleanor Wentzel.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. John Levengood, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kneppe, Mr. and Mrs. William Moore and children, Virginia, Nancy and Janet; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Melchiore and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lunghi and daughters, Patsy and Louise; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mariana and son, Richard; Mr. Richard Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. John Cooney, Mrs. John Fazekas and son, John Jr.; Miss Ann Dematteo and Anthony and Patricia Dematteo, Mr. John Saltzer, Mrs. Lena Jacketti, Mr. David Lucas, Mrs. Sara Cook and daughter, Vivian; Miss Angeline Tavaris, Rita and Pricilla Tavaris, Mr. Michael Zamolisky, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fontana and Miss Marguerite Dori.

Miss Beverly Peterman Surprised With Supper

In honor of her 21st birthday anniversary, Miss Beverly Peterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton M. Peterman, 856 North Franklin street, was plesantly surprised recently with a buffet supper and party given by her mother.

Supper was served the guests at 7:30 o'clock, after which the celebrant opened many gifts from her friends. The evening was spent socially.

Those attending were Miss Mary Jane Shaner, Mrs. John E. Kurtz, Miss Phyllis Ann Pickar, Miss Charlene Stevens, Miss Dorothy Arndt, Miss Eleanor Jane Hoffman, Miss Ella Virginia Feight, Miss Nancy Lou Williams, Miss Frances Lorraine Peterman, Mr. Alton Gareth Peterman and Mr. and Mrs. Peterman.

Mr. Ernest Keehn Weds Eva Myers in Amityville

Mrs. Eva Myers of Penn Village and Mr. Ernest Keehn, 1241 Maple street, were united in marriage recently in the Amityville Union church with the Rev. William Solly, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a two-piece gray suit of dressmaker design and wore white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Alice Keehn, sister of the bridegroom, who chose a black dress with white accessories and a corsage of roses. Mr. Charles Everhart served as best man.

The couple left for a honeymoon trip to the Pocono mountains and other points of interest in the State. Upon their return they will reside in Penn Village.

Mr. Keehn is an employe at the Stanley Flagg plant at Stowe. He served in the Army for five years during the past war, of which part of the time was spent in the European theater of operations.

For a Sunday night supper platter arrange cooked asparagus on the serving dish, top with creamed tuna and a sprinkling of Parmesan cheese. If the platter is of a heat-resistant material it can be put under the broiler for a few minutes so the cheese will melt and turn golden-brown.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Avoid Those Two Suits

IF ONE of your opponents had bid one suit, the other a different suit, and they wind up playing the contract in either of those two suits or No Trumps, the duty of the opening leader is pretty clearly delineated. Unless he has something very freakish or at least unusual about his own hand, he should avoid those two suits as he would poison. The declarer's probable playing plan is marked as getting rid of losing cards in the remaining two suits by discarding them on a suit which has been bid. Therefore it is usually incumbent on the opening leader to seek quick winners, or the establishment of them, in one of two unbid suits.

	♠ 10 8 5 3 2 ♥ 5 ♦ Q 10 8 3 2 ♣ J 5
♠ A 4 ♥ J 10 7 6 4 3 ♦ A K ♣ 7 3 2	N W E S	♠ Q 6 ♥ K Q 9 2 ♦ 9 5 ♣ A K Q 8 6
	♠ K J 9 7 ♥ A 8 ♦ J 7 6 4 ♣ 10 9 4

(Dealer: East. Both sides vulnerable.)

East	South	West	North
1 ♣	Pass	1 ♥	Pass
3 ♥	Pass	6 ♥

Against that bidding North made the lead which West should have called if some irregularity by his opponents had given him the right to command one. It was a trump, the singleton heart 5. It was won by the A. South refrained from repeating it since he saw that North's original idea, to prevent ruffing by dummy, was a futile one. The sole hope to beat the slam was that North could get a trick quickly in diamonds before any losers of that suit were discarded on clubs. So he returned the diamond 4, and it was all over. West took out the last trump, scored three clubs, ruffed the fourth, re-entered dummy with a trump and on the fifth club tossed his losing spade.

Marked by the bidding was North's sound lead, as being a choice between the unbid spades and the unbid diamonds. With nothing particular favoring one suit as against the other, the major would have been a more intelligent selection, for a simple reason. With a good major suit, the strong side might have bid it along the way, but with a strong minor it probably would not. If North, following that reckoning, had led a spade, a trick would have been set up quickly in the suit. And when South got in with his heart A, he could have beaten the contract promptly.

Band Youngsters Go to Camp Upland

Twelve boys and girls, all members of the Pottstown Salvation Army band, went to Camp Upland, near Chester, Tuesday for ten days of camping fun and musical instruction.

The youngsters, nine to 15 years, were driven to the Salvation Army-owned and operated camp by Capt. Meral Cox, head of the Pottstown citadel.

Their way was paid by members of the local Army's Ladies' auxiliary.

Captain Cox organized the band six weeks ago, and has been training the youngsters intensively in preparation for their camping trip.

The ten youngsters included Harold Graham, William Firering, Virginia Brunner, Gloria Yusko, Shirley Mauger, James Graham, Rochelle Brunner, George Lichtley, Laura Beaumont, Walter Borowy, Robert Woodley and Caroline Firering.

NEW RED CHAMPAGNE

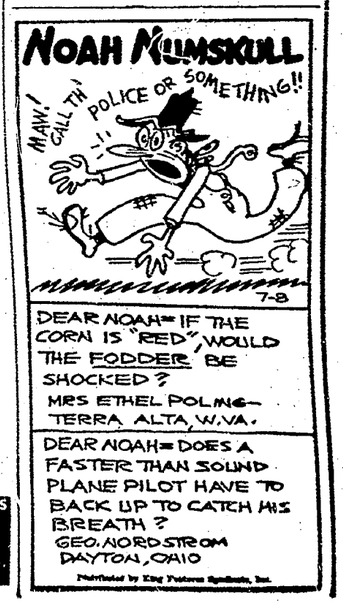

TASHKENT, Russia, July 6 (AP) — A new champagne, "Sparkling Red," is to be produced by the Soviet champagne factory here. Uzbeg champagne has become popular in the USSR in recent years and the local factory has been going night and day.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Town Hall's Goal For Members Goes Past 25% Mark

More than one quarter of Town Hall's goal of 1000 members already has been reached, three months before the 1948-49 season is scheduled to begin. Stanley I. Davenport, president, announced Tuesday night.

The announcement came as the Town Hall board of directors held its final Summer meeting.

Efforts to reach the goal will continue throughout the Summer months, Davenport said, as individual members of the board contact old and new members for the coming year.

Davenport said the first meeting of the group is expected to be held in October. Arrangements for the session now are being made by George D. Robins, program director.

Memberships for Town Hall, Pottstown's only forum discussion group, are priced at $3.25, tax included, for adults, and $2, tax included, for students.

They may be purchased from Joseph Lynch and Helen V. Purnell, co-chairmen of the membership committee; from members of the board of directors, or at the office of The Mercury.

New Teacher Picked By Warwick Board; Contract Awarded

The election of a new faculty member, and the naming of teachers to new activities featured the July meeting of the Warwick school board in the school building Tuesday night.

W. F. Noble, board secretary, attended the meeting for the first time in ten months. He had been seriously ill.

Elmer P. Dwyer Jr., Chester, was added to the faculty as a teacher of social studies, while Elwood F. Baver, already on the staff, was designated as coach of soccer, basketball and baseball. Baver also was named to take the school census in August.

THE FIVE BOARD members present approved the bid of Herr & Son, Lancaster, to handle school supplies for Warwick.

Miss Irma Liggett was elected treasurer of the activities fund, while Frederick G. Erb was asked to act as the board's representative for the same fund.

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP) — New Republic magazine today announced the resignation of Henry A. Wallace as a contributing editor. Wallace said in his final article that "the strenuous three months ahead will require my full energies."

Proper Child Care Is Country's Need, Kiwanis Club Told

The United States could stop worrying about Communism if its children were reared and developed properly.

With this message, the Rev. C. Harry Kehm, pastor of Grace Reformed church, Allentown, Tuesday night spoke on the problem of underprivileged children before a meeting of 70 members of the Pottstown Kiwanis club, held in the Elks' home.

The Rev. Kehm, son of a former pastor of Zion's Reformed church, told the Kiwanians, "This country would not have to worry if we help develop the souls and talents of our boys and girls."

He urged that children be reared "to live, not just to make money."

The speaker believed, he said, that everyone should be happy in his way of making a living.

Kiwanis president John B. Hartenstine Jr. was in charge of the general meeting and of the session of the board of directors that followed.

Helium is now used to inflate airplane tires and to treat respiratory diseases.

Salvation Army Aide Assigned to Citadel Here

Lt. Alice Stehley, of Bethlehem, has joined the Pottstown Salvation Army headquarters as assistant to Captain and Mrs. Meral Cox.

The 21-year-old woman will be the Coxs' first assistant in their six years here.

After finishing her training at the Salvation Army Training college in New York City, Lieutenant Stehley spent 13 months in the West Philadelphia Army corps.

She then was sent to Pen Argyl, near Bethlehem, where she worked for nine months.

A welcome meeting for Lieutenant Stehley, open to the public, will be held in the 268 King street Army headquarters at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

The new assistant's duties will be general, according to Captain Cox.

Rotary Club to Hear Report of Convention

A report of the Rotary International convention held recently in Rio de Janeiro will be made by Andrew E. Vaughan Jr., Pottstown RD 1, at the meeting of the Rotary club in the Elks' home at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

Also on the program is Jean Moore, Pottstown pianist, who will give several piano selections.

The first cash register was invented in the United States in 1879.

HAROLD'S ESSO SERVICE

HE'S NOT ON OUR PAYROLL... but we couldn't do business without him!
When you take your car to an Esso Dealer Station for gasoline, motor oil, or a complete lubrication job—you're not really "doing business" directly with Esso Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania and affiliated companies, even though we make the fine products you get.
Instead, these 25,000 Esso Dealers from Maine to Louisiana are local, independent business men. You deal with the owners themselves—men who have invested their money and their initiative in building their own futures on serving you.
From many competing brands of gasoline and oil, these local business men have chosen Esso products. Year after year, they have seen first-hand evidence of the satisfaction to the buyer that Esso quality stands for.
As of today, these able business men have, on the average, handled Esso products for 12 years each. Many have bought from us for 35 to 40 years.
Obviously, we couldn't do business without these men. And naturally we're proud of them—just as proud of them as we are of the 29,000 workers who are on Esso company payroll.
Both groups—our own employees and these "partners" in their independent businesses—express this company's basic belief that individual enterprise, given its fair chance to earn fair rewards—is the best way and the American way to make progress with and for all the people of this country.

East End's 1947 Pottstown softball champs and the Redbirds continued their two-way fight for leadership in the City-Industrial softball league last night by turning in impressive victories and remaining deadlocked for first place.

East End took the New York store with ease, 8-3, while the Redbirds needed a late rally to best Carlini AC, 9-2. East End and the New Yorkers played on The Hill far fields while the Redbirds and Carlini battled at South Pottstown.

The defeat knocked the New York store out of third place in the standings and moved Spicer's Cafe and West Pottsgrove up one notch. The New Yorkers are now resting in fifth place along with Maria Assunta.

East End scored early and built up a 4-0 lead before the New Yorkers made it close with a three-run outburst in the third. The champs, however, made it 5-3 with a single run in the bottom half of the third and then clinched it with another three-run uprising in the sixth.

The Redbirds had a little more trouble. Carlini opened scoring and held on to a slim 3-2 lead after four complete innings. The Redbirds then came to life, exploding for seven big runs in the fifth frame to put the game on ice.

Star Injured

GIL DODDS

Dodds Strains Achilles Tendon In Left Leg

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP) — The American Olympic financial prospect brightened today but the team outlook was overcast by an injury to Gil Dodds.

Dodds, the only United States distance runner with a real chance to score, has a strained achilles tendon in his left leg. If this forces him out of the 1500 meter final tryout in Evanston Saturday the Olympic committee will be compelled to leave him off the team.

On the bright side, Owen Van Camp, Olympic treasurer, reported that $28,000 was received overnight bringing the total on hand to $358,000 against a budget of $500,000. An additional $80,000 is pledged.

* * *

IF DODDS fails to respond to treatment in time to compete in the tryouts, or finishes fourth or worse, a situation similar to the 1936 pole vault will arise. Then George Varoff of the San Francisco Olympic club set a world record of 14 feet 6½ inches in the National AAU championships but could do only 14 feet the next week in the Olympic tryouts and was regretfully left behind when the team sailed for London.

Dodds had been counted on to take fourth place or possibly a little better in the 1500 at London. In the longer races no American is given a chance.

An international gesture of good will sent pole vaulters' spirits soaring along with the marks. A consignment of 50 special bamboo poles was received from Japan, forwarded by Shuhei Nishida, who was runnerup to Earle Meadows in the vault at Berlin. Richmond (Boo) Morcom and others immediately put them in use, terming them the "greatest thing" they had seen in poles—light, and with plenty of spring.

A's Edge Yanks, 4-3; Hank Majeski Stars

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—Hank Majeski knocked in three runs with a home run and triple to lead the Philadelphia Athletics to a 4-3 victory over his former New York Yankee teammates tonight. Dick Fowler spaced nine hits to register his seventh victory against one loss.

A crowd of 61,163 saw the second place A's make the most of their four hits off Tommy Byrne and Frank Shea to hand the Yankees their fourth straight defeat and remain 10 percentage points behind the pace-setting Cleveland Indians.

Majeski climaxed a three-run first inning for the A's by belting a home run with one aboard. Eddie Joost had opened with a walk, raced to third on a single by Barney McCosky and scored on a fly by Don White.

Majeski drove in what proved to be the winning run in the fifth with a long triple which chased in White who had walked.

The Yankees got their first run in the fourth on a single by Joe DiMaggio, an infield out and another one-bagger by Billy Johnson. They added two more in the sixth on a walk to George Stirnweiss, Bobby Brown's third straight single and Yogi Berra's freak triple which scooted down the first base line and eluded right fielder Elmer Valo.

Chicago Cubs Drop 10-3 Decision to Cincinnati Reds

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP)—Andy Pafko, newly named as the National league All-Star third baseman, made three errors as the Chicago Cubs floundered to a 10-3 defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds here today.

Two of Pafko's boots came in the first inning and Roy Smalley contributed another to stake the Reds to five unearned runs and they breezed in from there for their third straight victory. Ken Raffensberger scattered ten hits for his fifth win.

Frank Baumholtz hit his second homer and Dan Litwhiler his seventh of the season to pace a ten-hit assault off four Cub hurlers. Starting with Bob Chipman who was routed in the first, Baumholtz's blow was an inside-the-park homer that resulted when Harry "Peanuts" Lowrey crashed into the wall and couldn't retrieve the ball. He injured his right knee and will be out of action for several days.

DETROIT TIGERS BLANK BROWNS, 6-0

DETROIT, July 7 (AP) — Detroit Tiger Hal Newhouser, bidding for a pitcher's berth on the American league All-Star team, blanked the St. Louis Browns 6 to 0 tonight as he scattered seven hits.

The slender Detroit lefthander had a three-hitter through the first seven innings, but eased up a bit in the final two innings. It was his 12th win against six losses.

Giants Blank Phillies by 7-0 In Night Game

PHILADELPHIA, July 7 (AP)—Larry Jansen allowed only two hits, both singles, as the New York Giants shutout the Philadelphia Phillies 7-0 tonight with Bob Thomson hitting three-run homer in the eighth and Johnny Mize getting four hits.

Jansen didn't issue a walk and faced only 28 men as he chalked up his ninth victory of the year.

Richie Ashburn, Phillies' rookie centerfielder, got the first hit off the right-hander in the seventh but was erased in a double play.

Eddie Miller led off the ninth with the other blow and was left stranded at first as Jansen fanned Andy Seminick and pinch-hitter Johnny Blatnik and forced Ashburn to ground out.

Senators Rally To Nip Boston By 7-6 Score

BOSTON, July 7 (AP) — The Washington Senators cut loose with a five run rally with one out in the ninth to overtake the Boston Red Sox for a 7-6 victory tonight before a 33,957 crowd.

Junior Stephens and Bobby Doerr homered and Ted Williams became the first American leaguer to smash 100 hits while the Bosox were ending a four-game winning streak.

Stephens laced his 16th homer against starter Ray Scarborough in the third inning with Stan Spence aboard. In the eighth, against Dick Welteroth, the winning pitcher, Doerr lofted into the left field screen for the fifth time in four days, with the bases empty.

Indians Romp Over Chicago, 10-2, Retain Slim Hold on First Place

CLEVELAND, July 7 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians exploded six runs in the first inning and coasted to a 10-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox as Bob Feller notched his ninth triumph against nine losses. The win enabled the Indians to retain their slim first-place margin in the American league.

The cellar-dwelling Chisox rapped Feller for two runs on three singles and a sacrifice in the first frame, but the Tribe rebounded for six markers in the bottom half of the inning to sew up the game.

Leadoff batter Dale Mitchell singled to start the Cleveland rally. Singles by Johnny Berardino, Manager Lou Boudreau, Joe Gordon and Walt Judnich, plus Ken Keltner's walk and a wild throw by Chicago catcher Aaron Robinson plated six tallies.

Local Fancy Diver Enroute To Olympic Trials in Detroit

A young girl's dream became a reality yesterday when Fern Drumheller, former Pottstown High diving and swimming star, found herself enroute to Detroit, Mich., to participate in the Olympic trials Friday and Saturday.

FERN DRUMHELLER

For years, Fern has been dreaming of a chance to win a position on the U. S. Olympic swimming team, and her chance has come after years and years of practice. The former Pottstown High star will enter one event in the trials—the high spring board diving—and she has a good chance of placing in the top three spots.

Accompanying Fern on the trip to Detroit is Carolyn Longacre, Pottstown High girls swimming coach.

FERN WON her first diving championship as a sophomore in high school when she was crowned District One PIAA girls diving champion. She retained the District One crown in her junior and senior years.

Fern, 17-years old, has also been diving for the Berks County Athletic club, having won numerous championships. The local girl won the Berks low board title in her first year of competition.

Miss Drumheller was runner-up to the Middle Atlantic AAU indoor and outdoor low board championships in 1947 and was also runnerup in the indoor high board title. Early this year, however, Fern took over as Middle Atlantic AAU indoor high board diving champ.

This title enabled her to make the trip to Detroit for the Olympic trials, in which over 300 women swimmers will participate.

Fern is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Drumheller, 529 North Franklin street.

Double by Kiner, Single By Westlake Decide Game; Chesnes Winning Pitcher

ST. LOUIS, July 7 (AP) — Ralph Kiner and Wally Westlake teamed up with a double and a single respectively in the ninth inning to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2 to 1 edge over the St. Louis Cardinals tonight. Bob Chesnes held the Redbirds to six hits in his mound battle with Al Brazle.

A walk, single and double play were turned into a run in the fifth inning by the Bucs to break up a scoreless tie. The Redbirds came back in the seventh with Stan Musial getting his first hit of the game, he went to second on a ground ball play and scored on Whitey Kurowski's single.

BROOKLYN, July 7 (AP) — Roy Campanella's long fly to left field with one out and the bases loaded in the 11th inning enabled Carl Furillo to score from third after the catch with the run that gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 4-3 victory over the Boston Braves tonight. It was Brooklyn's sixth straight victory.

Preacher Roe, who pitched 6 2/3 innings of scoreless baseball, was credited with the victory.

CLEVELAND SIGNS PAIGE FOR RELIEF

CLEVELAND, July 7 (AP) — The pennant-chasing Cleveland Indians today signed that old veteran Satchel Paige as a relief pitcher.

The tall, lean hurler who has had a fabulous career in the Negro leagues and the exhibition circuit put on a major league uniform for the first time today. But he isn't scared. He summed it all up:

"I'm starting my major league career with one thing in my favor, anyway. I won't be afraid of anybody I see in that batter's box. I've been around too long for that."

That was Leroy (Satchel) Paige speaking, the famous Satchel of Negro baseball fame, who has fogged his "hurry up" ball and "bat dodger" past major leaguers in many an exhibition game for years.

JUST HOW LONG he has "been around," or how many games he has won, isn't very clear.

"Born in Mobile," he said. "Sept. 18, 1908." His age has been estimated variously in the 40's and even 50's, but he says he was eligible for the draft all, through the second World War.

But whatever age he admits to, Bill Veeck signed him up in the hope his right-hand relief pitching could bolster the Tribe's drive for a pennant. Veeck bought Paige's contract from the Kansas City Monarchs of the Negro American league.

Leo Durocher Selects Only Six Pitchers for His All-Star Team

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP)—The National league named only six pitchers to its All-Star baseball squad today but picked four slugging third basemen in hopes of overpowering the American league in the annual game at St. Louis next Tuesday.

Customarily eight pitchers are selected, none of whom may hurl more than three innings.

The streamlining of the hurling corps enabled the senior circuit to select four third basemen instead of the usual pair. The extra hot corner men are Sid Gordon of the New York Giants and Bob Elliott of the Boston Braves. Gordon has walloped 18 home runs and Elliott 10.

From the usual bunt-minded crew, the National league, still smarting under the sting of 10 beatings in 14 clashes with its rivals, will be a home run hitting aggregation from stem to stern. With the exception of the pitchers, the 25-man squad already boasts 146 home runs.

THE SIX-MAN pitching staff with the unenviable task of stopping Williams and company, will consist of righthanders Ralph Branca (10-6), Brooklyn; Johnny Sain (10-6), Boston Braves; Elmer Riddle (9-3), Pittsburgh; Ewell Blackwell (5-5), Cincinnati, and Southpaws Harry Brecheen (9-3), St. Louis Cardinals and Johnny Schmitz (7-9) Chicago Cubs. All but Riddle are veterans of All-Star competition Blackwell has seen service in two previous games. It will be the second call for the others.

Leo Durocher, manager of the Dodgers, who will pilot the All-Stars, must use the starting lineup designated by the fans for the first three innings. The remainder of the 25-player squad follows closely the fan voting.

Among the regulars will be Eddie Stanky, former Dodger infielder, who was traded to the Braves the past Spring. The scrappy second baseman has played a whale of a game for his new club and is hitting over .300 for the first time in his big league career.

* * *

FOLLOWING HIS trade, Stanky said that Durocher had "stabbed me in the back." It will be interesting to watch how the two function as teammates again.

Here is how the rest of the starting lineup will shape up:

LEO DUROCHER

Although no members of the Pirates or Reds are listed for starting lineup, every club is represented in the 25-man squad. The Cards and Braves have the most representatives, five; the Reds and Phillies, the fewest, one.

Philadelphia Eagles Sign Noble Doss

PHILADELPHIA, July 7 (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles today announced signing of halfback Noble Doss, former University of Texas player.

General Manager Charley Ewart said Doss agreed to terms for his second season with the Eagles and added that the 180-pound halfback was recovered fully from rib injuries that kept him out of the last four 1947 Eagle National Football league games.

Minor Leagues To Raise Funds for Olympic Athletes

COLUMBUS, O., July 7 (AP)—Minor league baseball moved today to get America's fundless Olympic qualifiers off New York's docks and into the games at London.

George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, today wired presidents of 58 minor leagues asking their aid in raising funds for the athletes who may be cut from the Olympic squad because of lack of cash.

Trautman asked the league presidents to designate next Sunday as "Olympic Day," to wire him Sunday night the amount of cash raised, and promised to have the money in the hands of Olympic officials by Tuesday.

AVERY BRUNDAGE, president of the United States Olympic committee, said yesterday that the present $90,000 deficit in Olympic team funds might result in at least 70 of the qualifiers being unable to make the trip.

"We don't expect to raise the full $90,000 at Sunday's minor league games," Trautman said, but at least we can help to some extent. I don't know whether this is a history-making incident or not, the professionals lending a helping hand to the amateurs. But I do know that if we can't send a full Olympic team to great Britain, we are mixed up in another 'American tragedy'."

Trautman said he "saw in the papers" that all of Argentina's Olympic team, numbering in the hundreds, had arrived in France while many of the Americans faced the prospect of sitting on the dock July 14 when the U. S. athletes sail.

"Maybe we are setting a precedent," Trautman said, "but the thing to do right now is to get the money, get the boys on their way, and then worry about precedents."

Legion Team Beats Ambler By 5-0 Score

Combining the steady pitching of Homer Royer with timely hitting, the Pottstown Legion Juniors shutout Ambler by a 5-0 count last night for their second victory in two days in the Mont-Bucks Legion league. The game was played at Franklin Field.

Royer, who pitched two scoreless innings against Hatboro Tuesday in warming up for last night's game, held Ambler to three singles during the seven innings he worked.

He was never in serious trouble, getting the best of support from his teammates whenever an Ambler batter reached first base.

Pottstown, meanwhile, was pounding Tony Catanzaro for eight base hits in six innings. The local Legion nine scored twice in the second, twice in the fifth and once in the sixth.

Bill Mignona paced the Pottstown hitters with two safeties in four official appearances at the plate.

Pottstown's record in the league now stands at three wins and four setbacks.

Rohland Captures Vaughan Trophy At Brookside Club

A final check of all final scores yesterday revealed Myron Rohland as the winner of the Jesse L. Vaughan golf trophy at the Brookside Country club. Rohland's winning score was 134 minus 32 strokes handicap for a 102 net.

The tournament started the past Memorial Day and continued through to the past Monday. Golf officials at Brookside were unable to tally all the scores Monday night and held off announcement of the winner until last night.

In second place was Johnny Leveille, who finished three strokes behind Rohland. Leveille chopped off 60 strokes handicap from his gross 165.

Jack Strange and Ken Nichols finished in a tie for third place with a net score of 111. Strange carded a 135 minus 24 strokes and Nichols carded a 145 minus 34 strokes.

Fifth place went to Ed Hartenstine. Hartenstine finished with 172 but had 60 strokes handicap for a 112 net.

Every golfer in the tournament plays 36 holes and then totals the 18 best holes to get his score.

Yale Crews Dominate Olympic Rowing Trials

PRINCETON, N. J., July 7 (AP)—Yale's oarsmen dominated the first day's trial heats in the second division of the Olympic rowing tryouts today, winning three of four events and finishing a very close second in another.

Beaten in the eight-oared trials the past week, the Elis sweepswingers came back to qualify for the semi-finals in the events for four-oared crews with coxswain, fours without coxswain and doubles.

After 12 heats in four events, Princeton and the Vesper Boat club of Philadelphia, shared the runner-up spot behind Yale. Each qualified a finalist in the pairs without coxswain—the one event in which Yale was beaten—and a semi-finalist in one other event.

Dog Chases Boy Bicyclist, Bites Him on Left Leg

John Vogt Jr., 11, of 59 West Fourth street, was bitten by a medium-sized white dog yesterday at 5:35 p. m.

The youngster was riding his bicycle west on Fourth street when the dog of Woodrow W. Frick, of 28 West Fourth street, ran out from the pavement and bit him on the left leg below the knee.

His family took him to the office of Dr. Caesar F. Sarni, who treated the bite and gave him anti-tetanus injections.

Desk Sgt. Russel Hummel instructed Frick to tie his dog and keep him under observation for ten days.

home Oct. 15, after he apparently had recevored.

SMITH'S FRIENDS at Ocean City with him Sunday at 4 p. m. when the accident happened gave this account of it:

A group of them were standing in the shallow surf, taking turns being thrown from cradled arms into the high-breaking waves.

It was Bill's turn. As his friends started to throw him upward into the wave, he paused. The wave passed. Then Bill dived—into the tiny trough of water, unable even to spread his arms to break the fall.

He floated face down in the water. Two friends standing nearby, Robert Leveille, 20, of 610 Spruce street, and Robert Elicker, 19, of 720 High street, rushed over and lifted him by the belt of his trunks.

He was paralyzed and unable to talk at first. Then he was able to mutter with a feeble smile: "I can't breathe; I can't move."

ELICKER WENT to the first aid station and a stretcher was brought back by a life guard, who ordered a doctor called.

While enroute to Shore Memorial hospital at nearby Somers Point, the youth began talking and joking with them, apparently confirming what his friends first thought—that he only had the wind knocked out of him.

Physicians soon discovered, however, that the fifth and sixth vertebrae of the spine had been pulled apart and crushed. He was paralyzed below the midchest, although he was able to move both arms slightly and to move his head and talk.

Jack Elicker, 18, brother of Robert, called his father, Dr. C. Robert Elicker, in Pottstown, and Dr. Elicker recommended Dr. Rudolph Jaeger, of Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, as the outstanding specialist on spine injuries in the section.

Although he was roused from bed in his Ardmore home at midnight Sunday, Dr. Jaeger promised to do what he could. He went to the seashore hospital early Monday morning and examined William.

* * *

THERE WAS NOTHING the specialist was able to do. The case was hopeless. It was only a question of time until the brain was left entirely without vital spinal fluid.

William sank slowly, but maintained his cheerfulness. At one point, he told James Tascione, 22, of 449 South street, one of his closest friends, "I'll see you next week."

Tascione and Smith had intended to remain at Ocean City through the week. Sunday was their first day of vacation.

At 2:30 a. m. yesterday the youth became unconscious. Oxygen was administered, and he revived briefly, but died 20 minutes later.

Other youths on the trip who witnessed the accident were Richard McDevitt, 20, of 1137 Queen street, and William Leveille, 20, of Grandview road.

THROUGHOUT HIS period in the hospital his mother, Mrs. Kathryn Smith; a grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Smith; his two younger sisters, Shirley and Joan, and an uncle, Lewis Saltzer, 19 West Sixth street, were at his side almost continuously.

Monday morning William was baptized at his mother's request.

William was born in Pottstown when his family lived at 48 West Sixth street.

He attended Pottstown schools, where he played football in junior and senior high school. In 1946 he was varsity center, although he stood less than five feet, six inches and weighed about 155 pounds.

After he finished school, he worked briefly for the Boyertown Burial Casket company. After a trip to Florida the past Winter and a spell of pneumonia, he went to work for the Pottstown Knitting Mills.

He attended First Baptist church, although he was not a member.

His father, William K. Smith, was killed in an auto accident when the youth was a small boy.

Surviving are his mother, sisters, paternal grandmother and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hoban, of Philadelphia.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 466 North Franklin street. Officiating will be the Rev. Delaine E. Story, pastor of First Baptist church.

Interment will be made in Edgewood cemetery.

PLANT WALKOUT — department representative, and he were able to get the men back to work.

When the 11 p. m. shift refused to work, Moreau Rau, union representative for that shift, and Garber tried to convince the men to return, but failed.

THE PLANT REMAINED opened yesterday, although there was picketing that stopped tire-builders and others in the tire division at the plant gates.

Men and women in the plastics, tube and industrial tire division were able to work, but many in the regular tire division had to be sent home because no work was available.

Heitman said the plant management would try to continue operations as long as possible. But he was unable to give any detailed estimate of how near a shutdown were production lines.

PLAYGROUNDS —

auto lovers, there was a contraption decorated with many varicolored plastic cars, topped with an airplane.

Another hat causing excitement was a grapevine model—with honest-to-goodness real grapes and vines.

Then there was the tallest of the show which towered 72 inches. It was made from two big stocking caps, and was filled to reach that monstrous height.

The smallest hat, definitely the type for those people who want to prevent their hair from blowing out of place, was made from a soft drink bottle top, replete with a snazzy, black feather attached.

There were also hats which Mama wore when she had the fortitude. There were monkey hats, football helmets and baseball caps.

THE SHOW HAD its share of beauty too. For instance, the antique model made from old-rose silk, topped with beautiful pink feathers, and with a pink ribbon tie under the chin. Consider a bridal veil affair, and another that looked like a garden of roses.

According to Mrs. Manthorne, the show went over "so big" that a Grand Hat show may be sponsored in the near future — or at least, next year.

Judges were chosen from the various playground neighborhoods. Many of them were connected with PTA groups.

Ribbons were given to all contestants while the winning hat wearers received a silver star for first place, red star for second, and green for third.

The next playground event will be a doll show next Wednesday afternoon. All playgrounds will participate.

HOUSING PROJECT —

week for families with five or more children.

Edmund J. Koser, executive secretary of the Montgomery County Housing authority, said yesterday a borough housing project would be expected to last more than 60 years with proper maintenance.

The life span of the project would be more than enough to cover the life of a long term bond issue, he added.

"If the borough should set up a housing authority," Koser went on to say, "we would be glad to take the group on an inspection tour of our project here."

Interest rates on two previous bond issues floated for housing projects in New York were set at 1.61 percent and 1.78 percent, respectively. Rates for a new $200,000,000 bond issue to be floated shortly are expected to range between 2 and 3 percent.

Boyertown

Swimming Classes To Start Monday

The annual "learn-to-swim" campaign sponsored by the Boyertown YMCA movement will open Monday at 10 a. m. in Boyertown Legion pool and all area boys and girls, nine to 17 years of age, are eligible for free instruction.

John Carhart, physical director of Central YMCA of Reading, will be instructor for the daily classes. YMCA aquatic awards will be presented to all who complete achievement tests.

Paul S. Hangen Jr., high school teacher, will be in charge of the campaign. Henry R. Carichner, executive secretary of the Boyertown movement, is in charge of arrangements.

Boys and girls will be put in separate classes and further classified according to age groupings.

Registration closes Saturday at 6 p. m.

"I DIDN'T THINK she was that tender," exclaimed Capt. Courtney Shands of Kirkwood, Mo., task force 38 chief of staff, when he saw the New York roll over.

Daniel Connor, 52-year-old chief storekeeper of Pawtucket, R. I., who served on the New York when she was commissioned, saw her inglorious end.

rapidly, with the pipe on Wilson street ready to be connected into Franklin street and smaller side mains.

This line will service the Brookside homes project and will lead into Washington Hill to relieve the long-standing lack of water pressure there.

A second major water main program, on Feist avenue, is headed toward the Paul L. A. Keiser building project in the North End.

Two major additions to the borough's sewer line also were under way yesterday, on Grant street and on Maplewood drive.

The Grant street project, scheduled to be 1600 feet long, is being installed by the Richard Jaffola company, of Boyertown, while the 600-foot Maplewood drive line will be laid by the Nicola Dinnocenti company, of Royersford.

SOVIET FIGHTERS —

the top for the first time in the air lift.

Flying by instruments in bad weather, U. S. pilots hustled in more than 1000 tons of supplies. The Americans had planned to fly at least half of the estimated 2000 tons of food a day needed for the western sectors. Since June 26th the Americans have brought in 5853 tons of supplies.

At the same time the U. S. Air Force attacked the growing fuel shortage in this beleaguered city. Shortly after noon the first coal-laden plane nosed into Berlin with 110 bags of coal.

The U. S. military government made public tonight a complaint from Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander, against Anglo-American stoppage of deliveries from their zones into the Soviet zone. The Anglo-American action was taken after the Russians put on their blockade.

Sokolovsky, in a letter dated July 3 to the American commander, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, charged the Americans and British had "grossly violated" interzonal trade agreements.

Mrs. Pomrankey, whose nearest neighbor was three miles away, telephoned for help. A posse of 100 men was hastily organized from the hunters, farmers and fishermen in the area.

They beat the woods and found Carol Ann's body, about two and a half hours after she had been carried away.

Mrs. Wien said last night that what her husband will do now, in addition to his health officer duties, was indefinite.

The next meeting of the commissioners will be held Wednesday night at the West End Fire company. Last night's scheduled session was postponed because two commissioners were vacationing.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR
Of The Mercury

Niagara Falls must be celebrating "Pottstown Week." Five scenic cards arrived from that sightseers' spot at one crack, indicating that the local area is well represented up there.

To those who may still make the trip, here are a few pertinent facts about the place.

The falls consists of the American Falls and the Canadian or Horseshow Falls, with respective drops of 165 feet and 155 feet (equivalent to the height of a 15-story building). The Niagara river is only 34 miles long, 27 of them navigable. It forms the boundary line between America and Canada along that stretch.

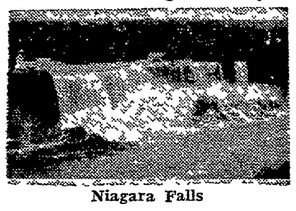

Back of the American Falls is a cave formed by the water action, called the Cave of the Winds. Below the falls, the rapids travel between rock walls 300 feet high.

Niagara Falls, Canada, has a population of more than 20,000, while on the American side, more than 75,000 was listed in the census.

Orchids to Mr. and Mrs Charles Good Jr., 467 North Evans street, who are honeymooning in Canada and around Niagara Falls. "We're having a wonderful time."

Mr and Mrs. Edward Thornton, 114 South Hanover street, are spending a week's vacation touring Canada and the Niagara vicinity.

Niagara Falls

"Writing to let friends know where I have been spending my vacation," pens Anna Mae Zern, who gives no local address. She too is hearing the ceaseless thunder of the falls at Niagara.

Sandra Fay Hertzog, no home address, said, "Am spending my vacation at Niagara and different parts of Canada. Tell the kids I'm having a swell time."

"This is one of the many things I have seen on my trip to Canada," wrote Billy Neiman, 53 Chestnut street, from Niagara. "Having a fine time, too."

"Having a wonderful vacation.

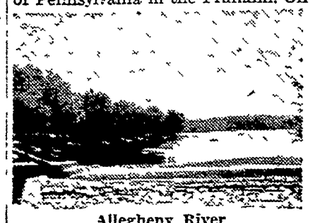

Wallenpaupack Scene

This is certainly the ideal vacation place, too," stated a card showing a scene from Lake Wallenpaupack, near Hawley. The card was signed: Ann. Wils, Marjorie and Wils Jr. (the Weidners), but no local address.

Mrs. D Erva Beck, 215 High street, is "vacationing in the Western part of Pennsylvania in the Franklin, Oil

Two local groups visited the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon at Wellsboro.

Grand Canyon of Pa.

Mr and Mrs. Raymond Schwoyer, 225 East Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown, spent the Fourth there. "Wonderful scenery, took walk down into canyon . . . and what a walk. Everybody is enjoying themselves."

Bob Pegler. Ken McCulley, and Bob McCord, George McCulley and family, of Elverson, are all vacationing in the mountains near the Grand Canyon.

Showing one of many fairly tame deer near Lake Wallenpaupack is this card sent by Mrs. Joseph Maranetz, St. Lawrence. "All kinds

AT REHOBOTH BEACH, Del., Jimmy Henry, who gave no address, wrote that the weather is top-notch and that he was having a good time swimming, fishing, playing, and seeing all the cowboy movies.

Rehoboth Beach, Del.

"I wish Billy were here with me," he said.

Variety Program Planned At Norco Grange Meeting

The home economics department of North Coventry grange will present a varied program at tonight's session at 8 o'clock.

The home economics committee will stage a play. Betty Yocom will speak on canning. And music will be furnished by Joyce Swinehart on the xylophone, and Mr. and Mrs Milton Kissling will give a duet on electric guitars.

Mrs. C Rudolph Kulp, master, will preside.

Stowe Firemen Hear Construction Report

Construction activities, which are still progressing, was the main subject of discussion at the regular meeting of the West End Fire company in Stowe Tuesday night.

Charles Flickinger, company secretary, reported that the major portion of the firehouse roof is completed and that the roof edges remain to be done. Workers, however, have been hampered by wet weather of the past month

Plastering work inside the building, which has been undergoing complete remodeling, may be finished this week, Flickinger added.

After that, and upon completion of the roof, company apparatus can then be moved inside.

Sixty members attended the session, which was conducted by Clyde W. Ludwig, president. Sixty-six new members were taken into the organization.

PLANE WRECK SPOTTED

PARIS, July 7 (AP) — The French news agency said tonight the wreckage of a plane carrying 16 passengers was sighted today about five miles from Djibring, French Indochina. There was no indication of the fate of the passengers and crew.
